

Dane Declines Nazi Offer To Form Cabinet; Refugees Shot

By JOHN H. COLBURN
Stockholm, Sept. 2 (AP)—Eric Scavenius, Danish prime minister who resigned his post when Germany clamped a military dictatorship on Denmark last week-end, has declined an offer by the Nazis to form a new government, Danish refugees said today.

Scavenius, one of the few Danish political leaders to escape arrest following Sunday's bloody revolt, had been asked to head a new cabinet by Gen. Hermann Von Hanneken, Nazi military dictator. Other members of the cabinet who resigned in a body with Scavenius, refused even to meet the Germans to discuss the situation, the refugees reported.

Cling to Power
Von Hanneken is expected to explore further the possibility of establishing a Danish government. He is reported to be anxious to have the Danes handle the civil affairs of the country with the Nazis retaining the power, through martial law, to punish saboteurs and suppress disorders.

Danish refugees arriving here today said it was apparent Von Hanneken is striving to reach a compromise with the Danes but that his efforts so far have been unavailing. They said that for the first time in more than 10 days no German soldiers were seen patrolling Copenhagen streets and that disorders appeared to be diminishing under the rigid controls set up by the Germans.

Sabotage was said to be continuing, though on a scale smaller than that of a week ago, and industrial slowdowns were reported prevalent throughout the country despite all German efforts to speed up production.

Several refugees reported that the Germans had ended strikes at Helsingør and Elsinore Monday by threatening to shoot every tenth worker.

Other refugees reaching Sweden in steadily fewer numbers said they had difficulty in getting through the German patrols. They added that the Germans shoot at boats which fail to turn back to Denmark and one Dane related the Nazi plane pilots even shot refugees who had reached Swedish territorial waters.

So far, Sweden has given asylum to nearly 500 Danes, all of whom are regarded as political refugees.

ST. MARY'S HAS ACCELERATED ITS SCHEDULE

Mt. St. Mary's, second oldest Catholic college in America, has ripped apart the regular schedule of activities that has served it well for over the century mark and, accelerated by war time necessity, is now starting new classes every four months.

The Rev. Dr. John F. Cogan, dean of the school who confesses that "we thought we were busy before the Navy arrived, but now we find that we were only walking fast then," expects that soon only a few civilians will be left to attend the school.

The 54 new civilian students who started studies at the college in July have already been whittled down to nearly bedrock by calls to the armed services. A few have already been sworn into the Navy and will soon exchange their civilian clothes for Navy uniforms. Most will continue on in their regular classes at the Mount, merely exchanging their status from civilian to military standing.

The remainder of the civilians are 4-Fs who may be reclassified, boys under 18 and pre-seminary students. Those students planning to enter the priesthood will not be called up for service under present regulations, Dr. Cogan said.

POPULATION OF COUNTY PASSES 40,000-MARK

Adams county's population has passed the 40,000 mark since the decennial census conducted by the Federal government in 1940, according to a State Department of Commerce survey which has just been completed.

The State department reported today, according to the Associated Press, that as of August 1, 1942, the population of Adams county was 40,781. The 1940 Federal count showed the county had 39,435 residents.

The Commerce department survey also indicated that the population of Pennsylvania has gone over the 10,000,000 mark for the first time in its history, making the Commonwealth the only state except New York to top that mark.

Count Service Men
The Department of Commerce report showed Pennsylvania gained 144,217 in permanent population since the Federal census in 1940, to give the state 10,044,397 residents. The 1940 census gave New York 13,479,142.

Pennsylvania's increase is more than half that recorded for the state in the decade between 1930 and 1940. The latest changes were distributed unevenly, ranging from a gain of 94,758 in Allegheny county to a loss of 28,027 in Lackawanna county.

Floyd Chalfant, Secretary of Commerce, said the population boost was determined through an analysis of birth and death statistics and school records. Men and women in the armed forces were counted as part of the permanent population.

The survey showed Cumberland county's population changed from 74,806 to 75,402; Franklin's from 69,378 to 69,237, and York county's population from 178,022 to 184,257.

Girl, 12, Becomes Mother

Wednesday evening at 5:30 o'clock in the Warner hospital, Mrs. Ralph W. Bretzman, York Springs, who is only 12 years old, became the youngest mother in Adams county by giving birth to a 6 1/2-pound daughter.

Both the infant and her mother, who before her marriage was Gladys Mary Peterman, of York Springs, are doing nicely, Dr. Byron C. Jones, of Bendersville, the attending physician, said today.

Mrs. Bretzman may celebrate her 13th birthday by taking her yet unnamed infant daughter home from the hospital. The anniversary date is next Friday, September 10.

The child's father is 19.

Services Today For Mrs. Eugene Jacoby

Funeral services were held from St. Francis Xavier Catholic church this morning at 9 o'clock for Mrs. Eugene J. Jacoby, 43, Littlestown R. D., who died at the Warner hospital last Sunday evening. The Rev. Mark E. Stock officiated. Interment in the church cemetery.

COUNTY BANKS HAVE SUPPLIES FOR BOND DRIVE

All members of the Adams County War Finance committee who will participate in the Third War loan drive which opens next Thursday morning at 9 o'clock are urged to call at their respective banks and secure their supply of literature to be used in the campaign.

To facilitate delivery of the vast quantity of material and to appportion out only that amount of literature which each worker feels he or she will require during the drive, Edmund W. Thomas, chairman of the county committee, has sent supplies to all the banks in the county. Each chairman, co-chairman, vice-chairman and member of each committee of both the men and women's groups are asked to call at his or her bank for supplies. This effects an economy on time, tires and gasoline.

Additional Supplies
When a worker exhausts his or her supply of literature he or she may secure a supplemental supply at his or her bank. On the same premise, if a bank's supply becomes exhausted during the three weeks' campaign it may secure an additional supply from the county chairman.

The literature includes:
Red and white paper label bombs to be given to bond buyers on and after September 9th when the campaign begins. Only one will be given to a bond buyer.

A small pamphlet describing the seven bond offerings during the drive. This is titled "Calling All Americans." These pamphlets are to be given to all prospective bond buyers.

Pamphlets for the use of all workers in the campaign. This is titled "Your Part." It is an instructive pamphlet and will help to instruct the worker in the bond drive.

Daily Reports
Order blanks are to be filled out for each bond sale. Each worker or solicitor must be well supplied with order blanks and each is urged to fill out the order blank at the time of sale and to fill out the perforated coupons at the bottom and mail as directed on each coupon.

One of the main reasons why workers are being urged to fill out the perforated coupons and follow directions is to permit a daily report of the progress of the drive in Adams county.

National headquarters and state headquarters are making every effort to submit for publication a daily report of the progress of the drive and to do this every county worker must do his or her part to make the plan 100 per cent effective.

ADDRESS BANKERS
A. T. Gramley, Lewistown, regional banking and investments director for the Third War Bond drive, was the speaker this afternoon at a luncheon held at the Hotel Gettysburg for members of the county banking and investment division of the county War Finance committee.

REDS ADVANCE ALONG ENTIRE 600-MILE FRONT

By ROGER GREENE
Associated Press War Editor
Adolf Hitler's battered armies were fleeing the rich Donets Basin in Southern Russia today and Berlin military circles attempted to alibi the retreat by asserting that greater forces were needed in the west to meet an expected Allied invasion of Europe.

All along the 600-mile southern front, stretching from Smolensk to Taganrog, the Red Armies were pushing their triumphant reconquest of the Ukraine.

Soviet headquarters said the Russians punched out gains of four to seven and one-half miles, engulfed hundreds of villages including 300 in the Smolensk-Bryansk sector alone, and killed 6,000 Germans.

"The enemy is bringing up his reserves and throwing them into counterattacks straight from the march," the Soviet war bulletin said.

Summarizing the battle of Taganrog—the greatest single German defeat since last winter's disaster at Stalingrad—the Russians announced that more than 35,000 Nazis were killed, 5,100 taken prisoner and eight German divisions totalling 120,000 troops were routed.

Other world events at-a-glance:
JAPAN — Official silence veils developments in daring U. S. Navy attacks on Marcus Island, hint raid may be feint to cover important move elsewhere. Tokyo says 160 American planes hit outpost in Japan's home waters, admits "some damage."

SOLOMON ISLANDS — U. S. heavy artillery opens fire on Japanese stronghold on Kolombangara Island; air scouts report Japanese may have staged "Kiska Evacuation" of Santa Isabel Island, fleeing without a fight.

NEW GUINEA — Japanese resistance crumbling in siege of Salamaua, enemy rearguards falter under Allied blows.

ITALY — Allied raiders blast Naples area with two-ton bombs, rip communications in southern Italy.

Many In Danger
On the Russian front, tens of thousands of German troops hastily retreating from the Donets River basin were threatened with entrapment between Russian columns advancing along the sea of Azov and other Soviet forces lunging into the Ukraine farther north.

A Berlin broadcast, acknowledging the withdrawal, said the Russians were building up an overwhelming striking force on the middle stretches of the Donets River, and this suggested that the Nazis were preparing to abandon the industrial city of Stalino, 65 miles northwest of Taganrog.

Farther north, dispatches said the Red Armies were girding for a final powerhouse assault on Smolensk, German keystone fortress 230 miles west of Moscow, and were also battering into Nazi defenses around Bryansk.

Use 1,400 Fighters
In the western air war, the RAF's giant bombers apparently gave the German home front a respite after Tuesday night's shattering assault on Berlin.

Swedish correspondents in Berlin said the Germans sent up nearly 1,400 night fighters in an attempt to ward off the RAF block-buster raiders Tuesday, but the Germans themselves admitted that about 350 planes broke through the capital's defenses.

A Swedish dispatch passed through Nazi censorship said the damage was "heavy both inside Berlin and on the outskirts," and reports reaching Stockholm said about 500,000 residents of Berlin had fled the city for the duration of the "bomb war."

MARCUS ATTACK
SIGN OF COMING
MOVES ON JAPS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The mystery surrounding our assault on Japan's Marcus island is of course purposeful and a part of the high command's strategy, but we are warranted in regarding this operation as a colorful advertisement that Uncle Sam is rapidly approaching the time when he can do business on a big scale in the Pacific.

This doesn't mean that we are to expect the opening up of grand offensives immediately. It does mean that our strength in the Orient has increased to the point where our fighting forces are wearing their caps cocked at a rakish angle. That strength is cumulative and is mounting more rapidly each day.

All sorts of speculation is going the rounds as to the exact meaning of this startling move in which our task force has boldly sailed in and taken a punch at a point in the very perimeter of the defenses of the Japanese mainland. One guess is about as good as another, but there are some things which we can pin down.

Could Have Hit Mainland

For instance, we know that Marcus island, while only a pimple on the face of the Pacific, is highly important to the Japs for both defense and offense. Lying as it does some 1,200 miles from the Japanese mainland, it's a vital listening post—a sentinel to warn of the approach of danger. It also is a strong air-base, and is a stepping stone between Japan proper and her islands in the Southwest Pacific.

That's part of the spade work which naturally would be done in preparation for a big-scale offensive. It's a step in the preparation of the big pair of pincers which the Allies are going to clamp onto the Japanese in due course—an attack from the south and from the Aleutian islands in cooperation with a drive against Burma by United Nations forces under Lord Louis Mountbatten.

The psychological effect of the Marcus island expedition already has been top-hole. We have succeeded in scaring the stuffing out of the little men of the Rising Sun who yesterday rushed their spokesmen to the microphones to warn the public that their island kingdom was in peril. The radio spread the news—and it was quite accurate—that we could have attacked the Japanese mainland had we seen fit.

A Very Difficult Operation

There is some speculation whether our forces had the hope of drawing the Japanese Navy out into the open where we could get at it. Well, that's an interesting thought, but the best we can say without further information is that the American Navy would be happy to get a crack at the Jap home fleet under favorable conditions.

The Nipponese have been keeping their main naval strength close to home bases—and who can blame them? If they should lose their fleet, the little island of Japan certainly would be exposed to some nasty winds. It is for this reason that thus far they haven't dared risk an all-out sea combat with us.

Is our task force bent on occupying Marcus island? Obviously this base, so close by air to Tokyo, would be a great asset to us, if it could be held without too much sacrifice. It wouldn't be easy to maintain this position, so close to the Jap mainland. Likely the question of whether the task force would try to occupy the island would depend on how successful we were in paralyzing Jap resistance. It would represent a very difficult operation.

SHORTAGE OF
GASOLINE IS SEEN BY ICKES

Washington, Sept. 2 (AP)—The prospect of dry gasoline pumps in the east "in a matter of days" was raised today by Interior Secretary Ickes who said trouble lay ahead for the entire nation unless motorizing is held to essential travel.

Ickes, war fuel administrator, said in a radio speech last night that: "The east has more gasoline ration coupons than it has gas quota, and is using them. Consumption has been exceeding the 342,000 barrels allotted daily for civilian use by anywhere from 30,000 to 35,000 barrels."

The southwest and midwest are "living on borrowed time" as far as gasoline is concerned.

Plenty in West
The Pacific coast has a "comfortable supply" but "if the people there could know of the military demands that lie ahead when the war in the Pacific really gets under way, they would know that there is anything but comfort ahead."

The armed forces are using 600,000 barrels of gasoline a day and need almost a third of the output east of the Rocky mountains during the last half of 1943. Ickes said. Military requirements will mount to 37 1/2 per cent of that production next year, he added.

He said lifting of the pleasure-driving ban in the east was only a change in administrative policy—it did not mean there was more fuel available.

CHURCHILL AND
FDR TALK WAR;
RED MEETING?

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

Washington, Sept. 2 (AP)—In the easy atmosphere of a semi-social visit Prime Minister Churchill and President Roosevelt settled down to a discussion of war-generated political problems today while official Washington awaited some on-the-record response from Russia to Anglo-American overtures for a three power conference this year.

Despite all that the President and the Prime Minister have said about meeting Russia there still was no indication from Moscow as to whether the suggestion was considered favorably there, nor was there much concrete evidence in Washington thus far of success in arranging a preliminary get-together of top diplomats of the three governments.

Biggest Problem

The need for closer coordination among the three most powerful Allied nations thus remained the number one political problem pointed up by the recent Anglo-American conference in Quebec and obviously held open for further discussion in Washington.

Mr. Churchill arrived from Quebec late yesterday, accompanied by Mrs. Churchill and his staff. The only function immediately announced for his entertainment was an informal family dinner at the White House last night.

White House officials stressed that the visit should not be considered as of a purely business nature since Mr. Roosevelt hoped to make it since social. They also described the talks as representing not the beginning of a story but the conclusion of one begun in Canada.

Entirely lacking in these comments and in the general atmosphere of the new conference were signs of the extensive military planning which was the main purpose of the Quebec meetings. The emphasis appeared rather to be on political aspects of the war in Europe, both present and future.

Russians Informed

Two State department disclosures yesterday bore directly upon Russia's prospective participation with the United States and Britain in the solution of these problems. The department issued a statement saying that Russia had been consulted about and kept fully informed of military operations in the European theater of war and also "with respect to political situations arising directly out of military operations."

This latest evidence of Anglo-American efforts to work closely with the Soviet Union was coupled subsequently with a press conference comment by Secretary Hull that he considered a tripartite meeting highly desirable but had no plans for attending such a meeting himself.

What official information the President and Prime Minister have regarding Marshal Stalin's willingness to meet them is of course a state secret. Diplomatic custom normally would require that any public announcement along that line should come from Moscow rather than from Washington or London.

JAPS BLASTED
FOR SHOOTING
YANK 'CHUTISTS

(Editor's Note: Official advice, in military precise language, have told of a new American air triumph in the Solomons Monday. These reports said 60 Japanese Zeros tried to break up a raid on the enemy air base of Kahili, Bougainville, and 37 were shot down. Here are intimate glimpses of heroic action by American fliers on that raid as obtained by an Associated Press war correspondent from the pilots on their return to their Guadalcanal base.)

By ART BURGESS

Guadalcanal, Aug. 30 (Delayed) (AP)—Thanks to Lieut. Homer W. Faucett, 1941 National AAU middleweight wrestling champion from Indiana, and the gallant crew of his Liberator bomber, the Japanese have paid dearly for firing on American fliers dangling helplessly in parachutes, floating down to sea.

It happened after today's smashing raid by four engined Liberators and escorting Lightning fighters on Japan's Kahili airdrome on Bougainville in the Solomons. The total bag of Japanese planes for the day was 37.

Battle 20 Zeros

But Faucett and his companions supplied some of the most dramatic moments on the trip back. Near Vella Lavella island, one of the Liberators was hit by pursuing Zeros. Four men parachuted from the stricken bomber.

Twenty Zeros went after the descending fliers, their guns blazing. Lieutenant Faucett, 25, whose home town is Hillsboro, Ind., was in a nearby formation of bombers.

"I checked with the crew first on the inter-phone, talking with every man," Faucett said.

"Pilot to turret gunner: Shall we go back?"

"Turret gunner to pilot: Let's go back."

It was that way in each case. "All well knew there was a strong probability we would never come back," Faucett continued.

Get 7 Out of 20

"When we turned back, one man in a chute was hanging limp after a Zero strafed him. Our gunner drove off another trying the same dirty trick. Then 20 Zeros started working on us at 4,000 feet. We went down to 200 feet and dropped a life raft to the men who had jumped from the bomber plane. The Zeros made a coordinated attack, using as many as six coming at us at the same time.

"We would have been shot down if it hadn't been that our gunners were good marksmen. We half figured we didn't have a chance, so we vowed to get all the enemy we could before they got us.

"When we got home, there were more than 80 bullet holes and several cannon holes in the fuselage."

But Faucett's Liberator had bagged seven out of the 20 parachute-attacking Zeros.

made by Drs. Edwards, Hingson and Southward, of the U. S. Public Health Service, Staten Island.

A society officer said that the new method has been used several times recently at the Warner hospital with notable results. In one particularly difficult case here the new use of the drug brought "excellent" results.

The society re-admitted Dr. P. J. McGlynn to the organization. He has been a member of the Dauphin county society for the last several years.

294 Major Operations

Dr. W. R. Cadde, anaesthetist at the Warner hospital, talked on the differences and complications in the use of various anaesthetics with special attention to the types of persons on which particular anaesthetics would be used.

Hospital reports quoted by him showed that from May 1, 1942, to August 1 of this year, 225 fractional spinal anaesthetics were given as compared with eight of the old "one shot" type. Ether was used in 97 cases and local and general anaesthetics were used in six other cases. All were major operations.

The list of operations in that period included 108 appendectomies, 22 gall bladders, 25 hernia operations, 15 exploratory laparotomies, 13 hemorrhoids, five leg amputations, three spleens were removed with gynecology and obstetrics accounting for 81 other operations. Urinary tract surgery was used in 18 cases, he said.

Asked the amount of the proposed hike, he declared "wait until I see how many workers cabinet members discharge."

Martin indicated that the increase might be limited to those earning $1500 or less a year. Some administrative leaders are reported asking more pay for all employees receiving over $1800, which would benefit 17,000 out of 26,000 state workers.

Today's Talk
By George Matthew Adams

SPEED
I always liked to read the things that were written by Henry D. Thoreau—because he was never in any hurry to get things done, though the bulk of his writings make up a very worthwhile library. He died actually young—at the age of 45. But he left untold wealth of expression, and unique thinking that will remain a monument to him for so long as men think.
I came across this sentence of Thoreau's that seems so simple and sound: "The Earth moves around the Sun with inconceivable rapidity, and yet the surface of the lake is not ruffled by it." We place so much stress upon speed. We want to get things done in a hurry. Our forefathers were not in a hurry. They did things so well that they now spend large sums to get some of the things that they made with such care and so mixed with the love of the task itself. They took pains with what they did. They got joy out of it, too.
Anything that it worth doing at all is worth doing in the best possible manner. This has been said so many times that it sounds very old-fashioned—but a great fact, or truth, never goes out of fashion. Too much speed put to a thing crowds out all love—the one thing that remains to the end as a permanent asset.
Speeding upon the highway has unnecessarily cost thousands of lives. The extra time saved thus is nearly always wasted anyway! It takes time to think.
The heart has the most important job to do of any organ in the body—but the only time that it hurries is when it is whipped into it. Every other organ of the body does its work methodically, slowly, "and according to plan."
There are times when speed is essential—for example: When your house may be on fire, when a hurricane heads your way, or when a war is on. Then speed counts! But life was given us that we might take time to think, to create, to study and absorb this beautiful earth, and to take advantage of the strife and struggle of others who did take time to do things that might last, as a heritage to us.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Log Fire."

Story Of Founding Of Historic Emmitsburg, Maryland

HELMAN'S BOOK TELLS STORY OF FIRST SETTLERS

(Editor's Note—This is the first in a series of articles on the history of Emmitsburg, Maryland, originally printed in book form in 1906. The author was James A. Helman and the book, long since out of print has been practically unobtainable for many years. The first article tells of the German settlers who were the pioneers in Frederick county and who set the stage for the coming, later, of other peoples who founded the modern towns and cities of the county).

CHAPTER I By JAMES A. HELMAN

The first German settlers in Maryland were amongst the Dutch and French Labadists, on Bohemia Manor, Cecil, then Baltimore county, in 1661. This settlement was prior to the coming of William Penn's German Quakers in 1720. They scattered and mixed amongst the other settlements in Maryland and Delaware. Daniel Parlorious in 1684 founded Germantown. For many years Germantown was the rendezvous of German refugees fleeing from persecution, which devastated portions of Germany. From Germantown, this center of emigration, they spread over southern Pennsylvania to Lancaster, York and Adams counties. Many of these found their way into Maryland and Virginia. In 1714 twelve German families of fifty persons settled on the Rappahannock river, Virginia, near Fredericksburg. Others followed in 1730. Some had crossed the mountain into Shenandoah and Rockingham counties. These in turn were reinforced by Germans from the Pennsylvania settlements. By 1743 there were a number of flourishing German settlements in the Valley of Virginia. In 1748, when George Washington surveyed the lands of Virginia, he met men, women and children who followed him through the woods, who spoke only German.

These Virginia settlements were in regular communication with the settlements in Pennsylvania. We now have grounds to base the people and their nationality upon.

First German Families
The reports of good land naturally enthused the new emigrants and they were induced to follow on the trail the early pioneers had taken. The route of travel from Germantown to Lancaster and on to the Virginia settlements was over an old Indian trail, for pack horse travel and missionaries, extending through York and Adams counties into Maryland, stopping at a point on the Monocacy river where in 1734 they erected the first church in the county. From here they pushed on to the Potomac, crossing the Blue South Mountains through Crampton's Gap.

On this route in 1729 the first German families drifted into Maryland. One report says as early as 1710 or 1712. They settled near Monocacy, and between 1732 and 1734 built the first German church in Maryland. It was situated on the west side of the river, ten miles above where Fredericktown was laid out. Within fifty years, the recollections by a few of the spot, could still be pointed out and indications found of the burying place of these pioneers. Sad to relate, all evidence has been destroyed by the hungry and heartless seeker after gold, and that which would be as Plymouth Rock to the Germans has passed into tradition more than history.

In 1739, by order of the Lancaster county court, a road was built from Wright's Ferry (Wrightsville) to the Maryland line, a distance of 35 miles and thence by an act of the Maryland Assembly, it was continued to the Potomac river. This road followed substantially the old Indian trail, and for many years was known as Monocacy road. It was on this great highway from east to south and southwest, over which in 1755, 150 wagons and 200 pack horses, secured in Pennsylvania by Benjamin Franklin, the first Postmaster General, transported their goods to Camp Frederick, where a part of the army was collected preparatory to the campaign of Braddock. It is said at this camp Washington and Franklin met for the first time. This was the route the Revolutionary War were taken to the barracks at Fredericktown and Winchester, Virginia; also it was the route used by General Wayne with his 900 patriots on the way to Yorktown.

Offers To Settlers
In 1732 Lord Fairfax made an effort to direct German emigration to Virginia. The Governor ceded a tract of 25,000 acres to John Hite, a German, and Jacob Van Meeter, a Dutchman, on condition they would settle 200 German families on these lands. Hite and Van Meeter traveled through Pennsylvania and New Jersey in search of Germans and directed them by the Monocacy road to Virginia. Lord Baltimore, not to be outdone Sergeant Frailey is attached to the Public Relations office at the headquarters of the Third Service Command at Baltimore.

Before induction into the Army Sergeant Frailey was a member of The Associated Press bureau staff at Annapolis. He is a graduate of Mount St. Mary's college and was editor of "The Mountain Echo," the college publication.

by the Governor of Virginia, in 1732 offered 200 acres of land in fee, subject to a rent of four shillings sterling per year, payable at the end of three years, for every 100 acres, to any person having a family, who would within three years actually settle on the lands between the river Monocacy and the Susquehanna, and to each single person between the ages of fifteen and thirty years, one hundred acres. One the same terms, with assurance, "these shall be as well secured in their liberty and property in Maryland as in any part of the British plantations in America, without exception."

Information On Monocacy Settlement

The settlement was a short distance south of Creagerstown. The river crossing was at Poe's fording, which has not been used for over a century. There are other and earlier references to this place. As early as 1729 Charles Carroll, the elder, located a tract of 10,000 acres of land on Pipe creek, Conewago and Codorus creeks, lying in York and Adams counties, all claimed by the Maryland authorities to be in this province. In 1732 Mr. Carroll in company with Mr. Ross visited these lands to inform themselves how to finish a survey. He refers in his complaint to a certain John Tradane, a Marylander and "a resident of Monocacy."

In Kerchival's history of the settlement in Virginia Valley, it is stated that among the early settlers there was Benjamin Allen, Riley Moore and William White, who had come from Monocacy in Maryland in 1734. These facts show that as early as 1732 and 1734 Monocacy was a place of some prominence. Although it never reached the dignity of a town, it would seem that as late as 1747 it possessed better accommodations for strangers than did Fredericktown. On neither visits of Schlatter and Muhlenburg to Fredericktown did they stay overnight; they returned to Monocacy. It was such a village as one sees today in sparsely settled countries, containing perhaps a public house, a store, a few dwellings and church nearby where the people for miles congregated.

The Conewago settlement first mentioned was near Hanover. A Lutheran church was organized, May, 1743, by the Rev. David Chandler, of York, who in the same year, 1743, organized the Lutheran church at Monocacy and served till his death the following year, when Rev. Lars Nyburg became the pastor of both congregations.

NURSE'S AIDE TRAINING FOR 110 H.S. GIRLS

When the St. Joseph's College high school girls return to their homes next summer at the completion of the school year starting next Wednesday, they will step into their home-town hospitals to help out as Red Cross nurse's aides.

Every girl at the school this year will be given instruction in the regular Nurse's Aide course sponsored by the National Red Cross, it has been announced, and will receive a Red Cross certificate as an aide at the conclusion of the course.

Since each aide is required to give a certain amount of service in a hospital each year, the girls will give that service in their home towns after they conclude school. This winter they will learn the rudiments of nursing in the school infirmary.

About 110 girls are expected to arrive at the high school next Wednesday morning. The school year will open with a special mass at 8 o'clock in the chapel.

St. Joseph's college will open September 15, and while announcement could not be made at this time as to the number of students who will attend the school it was expected that "about the same" number would be enrolled this year as last.

at Conewago, where Mr. Schlatter preached in May, 1747, is now covered by Christ German Reformed church, a short distance from Littlestown. At the time Mr. Schley (the ancestor of Commodore Winfield Scott Schley) was schoolmaster and Frederick and Monocacy to the Reforms. Mr. Otto Rudolph Creclius was acting in the same capacity for the Lutherans at the same places.

In 1781 an act of Congress directed that the British prisoners confined at the barracks in Frederick and Winchester should be removed to York from fear of rescue by Cornwallis. Twenty acres of wood land was cleared and cultivated by the prisoners. Huts, mostly of stone, were erected and surrounded by a picket fence 15 feet high. Whilst there a plague broke out amongst them—a thousand prisoners died.

Maryland Squatters
The first settlement in York county was on Kratz creek where Hanover now stands; before that Lancaster county. In 1729 people resided on a tract of land, on the west side of Susquehanna within the bounds York county. These persons remained however but a short time on land on which they had squatted. They were known as Maryland squatters, and were removed the latter part of 1729 by order of the Deputy Governor of Council at the request of Indians.

In 1722 warrants were issued for a survey of a manor to Lord Baltimore. John Diggs, a resident of Prince George county, Maryland, obtained a warrant for 10,000 acres, known as Diggs' chance, in the neighborhood of the present Hanover. Maryland at this time claimed the land to the Susquehanna. (Chapter 2—Further details of

into the regular V-12 Navy program. New civilian classes begin every 16 weeks with a one-week vacation between the semesters. The next class begins November 1.

While upperclassmen in the Naval program are continuing their regular course of studies, all have to take as electives some mathematical course from among the number required by the navy. Freshmen must take prescribed Navy courses.

So far the only holiday scheduled for the year is Christmas Day, when the civilian students may go home if they can reach their homes and return within the 24 hours.

The seminary is continuing its regular schedule of courses, with the institution planning to open next Wednesday with 85 students. While there has been no "speeding up" of the seminary program due to the war, Dr. Cogan said he expected that there may be some such increase in the tempo of the seminary in order to turn out priests faster because of the war emergency.

The Mount dean however feels that the increased speed of instruction is proving a hardship on the students. "A four-year course is really necessary if one is to allow the students to get the full benefit of college," he asserts.

"But for the duration of the war we will have to forego that and try to pour as much information into the students as possible with the hope that much of it will remain."

Navy slang and designations have taken over the Mount, where 206 V-12 students in white Navy uniforms are completing their studies to become deck officers and 110 V-5 Naval cadets in slate-green are training to become pilot officers.

The Navy men "go aloft," the floors are "decks," the main entrance to the main buildings is the "quarterdeck" and all other sections have been renamed after the designations given similar sections on ships.

LONG FORM IS BEST FOR EXACT JOB ON INCOME

(Editor's Note—Taxpayers whose yearly income is more than $2,700 if single, or $3,500 for a married couple, or who aren't subject to pay roll deductions for Federal Income tax, or who have outside income or are earning less than they did last year, must file new tax reports by September 15. This is the third of three daily columns explaining the new requirements.)

By JAMES MARLOW and GEORGE ZIELKE

Washington, Sept. 2 (AP)—Taxpayers who want to do a precise job of estimating their 1943 income taxes for the September 15 declaration will need the long-form work sheet which Internal Revenue officers will supply.

Any taxpayer whose income is more than $10,000 must use this kind of work sheet, but others will find it more suitable than the short-form being sent out to them.

The longer form resembles the annual income tax blank of the past, except that it's double-barreled—with two columns where there used to be one. The added one is for the Victory tax.

Things to Watch

It has the usual lines for setting down deductions from income.

The items which can't be carried over into the victory tax column are x-ed out—with two exceptions which the average taxpayer will have to watch.

There aren't any x's in the Victory tax column opposite the items of interest and taxes paid. However, the ordinary taxpayer can't deduct those items in figuring the Victory tax. That is permissible only when such payments are made "in carrying on any trade or business or in the production of collection of income or for the management, conservation or maintenance of property held for the production of income."

Here's a simple computation with the long-form:

Sample Computation

Aloysius Marblehead makes $90 a week. That's $4,680 for the year, which he writes in both columns.

Then he sets down his estimated deductions under the regular income tax: Interest paid, $180; taxes paid (he can't count Federal Income tax or Social Security), $125; contributions (to church and charity), $160. These add up to $465.

So Marblehead's net income for regular income tax purposes is $4,680 less $465, or $4,215.

Next he turns the page to start computing his taxes.

Aloysius is married and has one child. Therefore he's entitled to exemptions of $1,550-$1,200 as a married man, $350 for the child. He subtracts his exemptions from $4,215, leaving $2,665—which is his surtax net income.

So he looks at the surtax table and finds a surtax of $260 (that's 13 per cent on the first $2,000 plus 16 per cent of the amount over $2,000. That means 16 per cent of $665, which is $106.40. Added to $260, that makes his surtax $366.40.

Now, in figuring his normal income tax, he can deduct an earned income credit. That's 10 per cent of his net income, which was $4,215—so his credit is $421.50. This subtracted from surtax net income $2,665 leaves $2,243.50. That is the amount subject to normal tax of 6 per cent, which figures out to $134.61.

Total normal and surtax, then, is $134.61 plus $366.40, or $501.01.

Victory Tax Next

Brother Marblehead takes a deep breath and plunges into the victory tax column. From his total income of $4,680 he can subtract the victory tax exemption of $624, leaving $4,056. Five per cent (the full victory tax) of that is $202.80.

But Marblehead is entitled to take some credits against that. Under the law, his maximum credit is 42 per cent of the victory tax (40 per cent as a married man, plus 2 per cent for the child). This maximum figures out to $85.18. Aloysius expects to spend at least that much during the year for war bonds and life insurance premiums, so he can deduct the maximum credit—leaving him a net victory tax of $117.62.

He adds that to his total normal and surtax, bringing his grand total of taxes to $618.63.

Count Withholding Tax

This item he transfers to his declaration. (If, however, this sum had turned out to be less than his 1942 tax as figured last March, his 1942 tax would have to be entered instead.)

Next he has to figure out how much has been and will be withheld from his pay for taxes during all of 1943.

For the first 26 weeks of the year his paycheck was tapped for $3.60 a week for victory tax, or a total of $93.60.

Since July, $13 a week has been taken out of his check under pay-as-you-go. For the last 26 weeks of the year this will total $338.

Two Installments

In all, then, $93.60 plus $338, or $431.60, will have been withheld from his pay during 1943.

This total he also puts down on his declaration, and subtracts it from the total estimated taxes of

SILENCE VEILS DEVELOPMENTS OF U.S. RAIDS

(By the Associated Press)

Official silence hid developments today in the American sea-air assault on Marcus Island in Japan's home waters, less than 1,200 miles from Tokyo, but Imperial Japanese headquarters acknowledged "some damage" and said 160 U. S. bombers and fighters joined in the raid.

An enemy communique, broadcast from Tokyo, said defenders of the strategic outpost suffered casualties as the American airplane carrier task force rained tons of bombs and shells on the island early Wednesday, and it admitted damage to ground installations and grounded Japanese planes.

12 Planes Downed

The communique said 12 U. S. planes were shot down.

On the heels of a Navy spokesman's latest statement yesterday that the expedition against Marcus had been scheduled to strike on September 1 and was "presumably in progress," Washington speculated that the raid may have been a feint to cover some highly important thrust elsewhere—similar to the Japanese feint at Dutch Harbor, Alaska, to mask a heavier blow at Midway in June, 1942.

It was also considered possible, however, that the attack may have been preparing the way for occupation. Although the island is a mere dot on the map—less than two miles long and only two-thirds of a mile wide—it could serve as a valuable outpost to jab at the enemy's vital lines of supply in the Southwest Pacific.

Meanwhile, American pilots indicated that the Japanese, re-enacting their secret flight from Kiska in the Aleutians, had evacuated Santa Isabel Island in the central Solomons, site of a big seaplane base at Rekata Bay. Fliers returning from a raid on the base reported that for the first time no anti-aircraft fire was encountered.

Island Outfanked

Evacuation of the stronghold would be in line with Japan's apparent new policy of giving up untenable positions without a fight instead of pursuing the fanatical death-stand tactics that marked the battles of Attu and Guadalcanal.

The island had already been outfanked by American capture of both New Georgia and Vela Lavella Islands.

American forces on New Georgia were reported to be getting set for the next thrust forward in the 600-mile-long Solomons Archipelago as U. S. artillerymen opened fire for the first time on Kolombangara Island, across the narrow Kula Gulf from New Georgia.

Dispatches said the Americans heavily shelled enemy defenses on the southern shores of Kolombangara and U. S. bombers pounded the island's air base at Vila.

On the New Guinea front, Japanese defenses were reported cracking on the rim of siege-bound Salamaua airdrome, and a spokesman at Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters indicated that the end was near by characterizing the enemy's resistance as "rearguard."

American troops were said to have virtually surrounded a Japanese group of undisclosed size in the mountains south of the airstrip.

ANGEL'S WHISPER—is U. S. war slang for bugle calls in the Air Service. Your bugle call is the call to work and the call to buy at least $100.00 extra in War Bonds in the 3rd War Loan.

WAR HERO? IS NABBED BY FBI

Pittsburgh, Sept. 2 (AP)—Sidney H. Loveall, 23-year-old McKeesport resident, was a star attraction at war bond rallies in the Pittsburgh district.

Speakers pointed to the medals on his chest and told how he had won them in the Commando raid on Dieppe—the place where he suffered his seven wounds.

Last week Hero Loveall went into Quarter Sessions Court on crutches and in full uniform and was named auditor for Versailles township. Later, because he wouldn't get his pension for at least nine months, he also was given an appointment as a clerk in the county works department.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) took Loveall in custody yesterday. H. K. Johnson, FBI chief here, said Loveall admitted that although he had served overseas he had never seen active service and that he had not won the medals—some he had bought, the rest had been given him by other soldiers.

Later a U. S. Commissioner held Loveall under $3,000 bond on charges of unlawfully altering his honorable discharge and unlawfully wearing a soldier's medals.

Oil Companies To Study New Plan

Representatives of oil companies and distributors of the Harrisburg District have been invited to attend a meeting in the District OPA office in Harrisburg Friday at 10 a. m. The chief purpose of the meeting is to discuss the establishment of "emergency" gas stations.

Grover R. Dale, associate mileage rationing representative of the district office, has called the meeting and will be in charge.

OPA rationing officials will discuss with the oil company heads the designation of certain locations as "emergency" stations to take care of the needs for emergency transportation at all times. The entire gas station set-up will be surveyed in the matters of storage, capacity, locations, types, and accessibility will be taken into consideration in the selection of the "emergency" gasoline stations.

Oil company representatives invited to the meeting include M. David Detar of the Aero Oil company of New Oxford.

The flicker, a species of woodpecker, is known by 120 names in this country.

THE LONG NIGHT

By Eleanor Atterburg

AP-F

Chapter 18

They crouched there for nearly an hour considering one plan after another. To attempt to scale the mountain at night was impossible. To wait until daylight was simply to invite a Jap bullet. But how to get down that murderous guard blocking the trail now?

"Our only chance of getting back to the Post now is to skirt the island. It isn't large," Scott added, "though appearing small from four or five hundred feet up doesn't mean it will seem small when we come to walk around it."

"It couldn't be any worse than climbing those mountains."

Night had followed the long twilight more abruptly than usual and the wind was rising. Bette felt drops of rain.

"Whatever we do, we've got to do it quickly or we'll be caught like rats," Scott said then. "They probably won't miss me down there for awhile yet." He laughed abruptly, softly. "I've been locked up for the night. Having had nothing to eat for a week. I'm considered in good shape to start a little of their fancy third degree tactics tomorrow."

"Oh, Scott. How horrible."

"Uh-huh. I thought it was time I moved on."

"But how did you—"

"Luck. And a little scrimmage practice. If that luck holds, they won't miss me until dawn tomorrow," he whispered. "This bird down here is just an outpost sentry. He thinks he heard a noise back there, but he's not sure. Not sure enough to bother coming up this hill."

"Then maybe he'll go away pretty soon."

"I doubt it. This is part of his regular beat. He'll probably squat right there until daylight."

Bette was silent a moment, her own thoughts rounding up new escape possibilities. Then, "Have you a gun?"

"Nope. Nothing but a nasty looking knife I borrowed back there."

"Paul Porter has my pistol," she told him. "And a first-aid kit is all I have to offer."

"We may need that, all right," he said grimly. "Look. As I figure it, there's only one thing we can do now."

Then swiftly he outlined a plan. Simple enough—if it worked—and it had to work.

"Are you game?" Scott concluded. "Of course." Now that the plan was decided, she was eager to put an end to the long waiting. "Let's go."

"Give me time to get across the trail and down as far as that first pine over there. Then light one match. Let it burn up brightly for a second. Then douse it." Scott's directions came in a sharp whisper. "Repeat it until you're sure you have attracted his attention. When you think he has started up the trail, increase the length of the intervals between each match. Got it?"

"Perfectly."

"We've got to chance it he won't shoot just on suspicion," Scott continued. "I think it's an even chance."

They'd been walking nearly an hour when they reached the end of the point and could look down onto the throat of the tiny bay.

"You wait here," Scott commanded, thrust her down behind the comparative shelter of a fallen tree. He was gone for ages but Bette's weary body refused to support her anxious mind. She could only sit there, shivering, trembling with fatigue, hoping he'd come back soon. When he did, he had bad news. "We can't possibly make it on foot," he said savagely and slumped down beside her, panting.

RAPS FEDERAL LEASE ACTION

Harrisburg, Sept. 2 (AP)—William H. Chesnut, state Secretary of Labor and Industry, appealed to the War Manpower commission today to reconsider its reported decision to cancel state leases on offices of the Pennsylvania Employment service and replace them with Federal government leases.

Calling the proposed action "unexpected and rather inexplicable" in a letter to Frank L. McNamee, regional WMC director, Chesnut pointed out the state merely loaned state employment service personnel and facilities to the Federal government for the duration "in the interest of the manpower mobilization."

"Your precipitate and ill advised determination to compel the state to cancel its leases . . . is an indication of insubordination to your superiors and to some extent a display of arrogance which I do not believe you, personally, would subscribe to or support," Chesnut wrote.

The state official has complained to Paul V. McNutt, WMC director, that the Federal government's reported plan to absorb the state's employment service permanently would be injurious to Pennsylvania's interests. He contended President Roosevelt had directed the state's service be maintained.

Ration Board Head Resigns

Norristown, Pa., Sept. 2 (AP)—Dr. F. G. Myers resigned as chairman of the Norristown War Price and Ration Board Wednesday following criticism of his administration in connection with recent theft of gasoline and shoe rationing coupons from the board office.

As a result of the theft, Dr. Myers earlier this week complied with a request from Regional OPA Manager Raymond F. Ashenfelter for the dismissal of a board employee for "negligence." The OPA also had said it might investigate the office.

Dr. Myers gave no reason for stepping out, but declared in a statement that he hoped his action would end a "controversy started by an envious member of the board which threatened to disrupt our rationing program."

ACCUSE 32 IN POULTRY CASES

Wilmington, Del., Sept. 2 (AP)—Criminal informations on file in the U. S. District Court today charged 32 individuals and seven corporations in six states with violating poultry regulations of the Office of Price Administration (OPA).

U. S. Attorney Stewart Lynch said some of the informations, which he and John D. Masterton, acting chief district OPA enforcement attorney, filed yesterday, were based on discoveries made when U. S. Army officers and OPA agents were requisitioning poultry for the armed forces.

Charges of upgrading poultry, failure to have a manifest as required by OPA shipping regulations, or both, were made against individuals and firms in Delaware, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia.

Thirty-four individuals and five corporations were named in similar informations filed recently.

Hot Tar Causes $1,000 Farm Blaze

Hot tar, catching fire as it was upset on a road patching job, was blamed for the blaze which on Tuesday destroyed a barn and pigsty on the farm of Oscar T. Starnier, Gardner R. 1, Cumberland county, causing damage of $1,000.

Starnier was unloading stone only about a half-mile from the farm at the time of the fire.

Workers had completed a patching job and were preparing to move equipment, when the tar-heating unit toppled over, with the flames rapidly spreading in the spilled tar, and causing a small explosion which spread the flaming tar over nearby dried grass. In a few minutes the blaze had spread beyond control to the barn.

The Citizens fire company of Mt. Holly Springs was summoned but was unable to halt the blaze due to the lack of an adequate water supply. The firemen under Fire Chief Rankin Dunfee used booster lines to prevent the blaze from spreading to nearby buildings, but were unable to save either the pigsty or barn, and both structures burned to the ground.

Farm animals were in the fields. Lost along with the structures was the season's hay crop, a binder and a quantity of straw.

OPA Raises Blue-Stamp Values Of Some Canned Fruits; Effective On Sunday

13 FOOD ITEMS RAISED; 8 CUT BY NEW ORDER

Washington, Sept. 2 (AP)—The Office of Price Administration today ordered the blue-stamp ration value of four types of canned fruit boosted, effective Sunday, in an attempt to slow down shoppers' demands.

The agency made point changes in 21 food items—13 up and eight down—as the result of a survey of the demand and available supplies of canned and processed foods. All the changes go into effect Sunday.

Canned fruits—especially cranberries, peaches, apples and pears—have been going off dealers' shelves too rapidly, OPA said, and the "new packs of these items are running below the figures of a year ago."

It fixed the ration value of No. 2 (large) size canned apples at 10 points, an increase of three; 16-oz. cranberries at 10 points, up two; No. 2½ peaches at 27 points, up four; and No. 2½ pears at 21 points, up six.

Frozen Fruits, Vegetables Up
The same order returned dried prunes, raisins and currants to the ration list after a summer vacation. They were valued at four blue points a pound. Last March prunes, raisins and currants were 20 points a pound, but they were made ration-free during the hot weather so stocks could be sold out before they spoiled.

Point values were raised for canned and bottled beans, pumpkin and squash. Other types of canned beans—fresh shelled, green or wax and fresh soy beans—were reduced, probably because fresh vegetables now are in demand.

Frozen fruits and vegetables went up and, OPA said, the "supply is still far below the buying demand." It explained "a fairly sharp and general upward point revision is necessary in order to siphon off some of the demand into other foods in larger supply."

Some of the point reductions and increases, OPA said, were made to speed or to slow sales of certain can sizes which aren't balancing with the same products packed in other sizes. For example, the point value of No. 2½ can tomatoes was reduced while other tomato sizes remained unchanged.

Dried beans, peas or lentils were cut "because of increased production and a corresponding increase in the allocation to civilians." The group was reduced from four to two points per pound for dried beans and to one point a pound for dried peas or lentils. Dried soy-beans and black-eyed peas are ration-free.

Following are the new ration values (all effective Sunday):
Canned Or Bottled Foods
Fruits—No. 2 apples, 10 points; 16-oz. cranberries, 10 points; No. 2½ peaches, 27 points; No. 2½ pears, 21 points.

Vegetables—No. 2 fresh shelled beans (including black-eyed peas), 10 points; No. 2 green or wax beans, 10 points; No. 2 fresh soy beans, 5 points; No. 2 canned and bottled beans (baked beans, pork and beans, kidney beans, etc.), 18 points.

No. 2 beet, 8 points; No. 2 carrots, 8 points; No. 2½ pumpkin or squash, 21 points; No. 2½ tomatoes, 21 points.

Frozen Foods
One pound all fruits and berries, 12 points; 12 ounces green or wax beans, 9 points; 12 ounces lima beans, 9 points; 10 ounces cut corn, 9 points; 12 ounces peas, 9 points; 14 ounces spinach, 12 points.

Dried Foods
One pound prunes, raisins and currants, 4 points; one pound beans, 2 points; one pound peas and lentils, 1 point.

Stray Dog Balks Attack By Snake

Waynesboro, Pa., Sept. 2 (AP)—A stray dog is credited with saving the family of Clarence Bleu from a possible attack by a copperhead snake.

The dog, a beagle hound, wandered into the Bleu's back yard, saw the snake on the threshold of the kitchen and promptly gave battle. He was bitten in the struggle.

Boy Scout Kit Provides Shoes

Washington, Sept. 2 (AP)—Have you a Boy Scout in your house? He can save you some shoe rationing stamps—maybe.

The Office of Price Administration ruled that handcraft kits of unassembled moccasins may be purchased ration-free if they were shipped from the factory before Tuesday. Moccasin kits shipped after Tuesday will be rationed as regular shoe leather.

MANY LAWS GO INTO FORCE IN PENNSYLVANIA

By WICK TEMPLE
Harrisburg, Sept. 1 (AP)—Even the cost of getting married is going up in Pennsylvania.

Marriage licenses now cost $3 instead of the former $2.50 under a new law which provides any official authorized to issue certificates shall be paid a recording fee of 50 cents.

The act is among 94 passed by the 1943 legislature and effective Wednesday. The date is arbitrary for activation of general laws not given a specific time for effectiveness by the assembly.

The license boost is part of the state's uniform vital statistics act which also requires issuance of three copies of birth, death and marriage certificates to anyone with military status.

Ross Probe Law in Force
New laws increasing from one to two the number of apprentices allowed each bituminous coal miner and lowering the compulsory apprenticeship period in such mines from two years to one hold out the possibility of increased coal production, declared Mines Secretary Richard Maize.

Also highlighting the list of statutes are the state's new Congressional re-apportionment, which created an uproar in the legislature; a retirement system for municipal workers and a requirement for at least four semesters of study in American and commonwealth history for high school graduation.

Fines For Boroughs
Another authorizes appointment by Governor Martin of private auditors to check accounts of the Auditor General. F. Clair Ross, present auditor general, says he will insist any such move include a study of the office since its establishment.

FEED SHORTAGE MORE SERIOUS THAN DROUGHT

Harrisburg, Sept. 2 (AP)—Miles Horst, secretary of Agriculture, observed Wednesday that Pennsylvania farmers "are more gravely concerned" with the livestock and poultry feed shortage than with the disastrous drought in the southeastern part of the state.

"Feed is getting so scarce that farmers may be forced to liquidate herds and flocks sooner than they otherwise would," Horst asserted.

The drought, however, has hit corn and potatoes hard and is forcing farmers to plow in "clouds of dust" because the ground is so dry, the secretary said.

"It is impossible to estimate in dollars and cents how much damage has been done in the drought area," he added. "Last week's rainfall brought little relief."

Production Off
Of the feed situation, Horst asserted "inability to get corn for livestock and poultry feeding until the new crop becomes available is hard

Prices Change In Philadelphia

Philadelphia, Sept. 2 (AP)—New price ceilings went into effect for 450 grocery items in the Philadelphia area Wednesday—but the effect on the housewife's pocketbook was hardly noticeable.

Among the increases announced by the District Office of Price Administration were: sugar, 1/2 cent when sold in two-pound cartons; one brand of coffee, three cents; one brand of peas and tomato juice, one cent each.

Lowered prices included one-cent drops for two brands of bread and three brands of corn, macaroni and tomato juice.

on the animals. Chickens, turkeys, hogs and beef animals cannot be given the proper "finish" before they must be marketed, due to the lack of feed.

"Thousands of small flock poultry raisers and town people with backyard flocks have had to give up. Dairy production is dropping off as cows are not getting the necessary protein feeds and must rely more on pasture and green corn."

A nationally-known agricultural economist, Horst asserted, estimated the feed shortage would reach 19,000,000 tons at the start of 1944.

SEES SYNTHETIC TIRES AS GOOD AS REAL RUBBER

Washington, Sept. 2 (AP)—Rubber Wednesday that the all-synthetic tires on which millions of motorists will be rolling next year will come close to pre-war wearability.

Should it become possible to lift the 35-mile-an-hour speed limit, Jeffers told reporters, drivers could run "at normal speeds" on synthetic casings without fear of tire failure. He didn't define normal speeds.

Increased familiarity of tire-makers with the new material and constant research improvements, Jeffers said, will put synthetic about on a par with crude rubber for mileage.

Reports that the war-born tires would have to be trundled along at covered-wagon speeds were dismissed as "plain hooey."

"They'll be able to stand up under ordinary care and treatment," Jeffers said.

Union Objections
Early synthetic tires showed a life of about 15,000 miles under testing, but the rubber chief pointed out that manufacturers were working with a strange material then. But now, he added, they have "learned a lot."

After a conclave of company and rubber union workers, Jeffers said agreement had been reached for "substantial reduction" of the pro-

Missed Goal In Aircraft Plants

Washington, Sept. 2 (AP)—July aircraft production was 12 per cent behind schedule, a War Production Board spokesman disclosed Wednesday, despite Monday's announcement that plane output was 4 per cent above June, with a total of 7,373 aircraft produced.

As a result of the summer slump some WPB officials have concluded that this year's 65 billion dollar overall arms production goal will not be met.

Top officials stoutly assert that the goal still can be achieved, but qualified observers within the agency reckon that 62 billion dollars is closer to the attainable.

Cooler weather and the end of the summer vacation period is expected to have an accelerating effect.

posed 695,000,000 tire factory expansion program.

The unionists had objected to the building of new plants where their locals would not be established, and contended that next year's production goal of 30,000,000 synthetic tires could be met by installation of machinery in existing plants.

The management spokesman agreed to review their expansion plans and eliminate any new plants not absolutely necessary. Jeffers, in a formal statement, said he was hopeful that a trimmed-down program would result which would "measurably avoid expanding the industry away from its presently fixed locations."

STATE WORKERS MAY GET RAISE

Harrisburg, Sept. 2 (AP)—The possibility of a pay increase was held out today for thousands of state employes in lower salary brackets.

An Administration source disclosed Governor Martin is making a study "to see what can be done along this line." The official declined to be quoted by name.

Stream-lining of department payrolls to eliminate some employes was reported to have been ordered at a cabinet meeting to effect sufficient savings to finance the increases.

Governor Martin's office declined comment on reports a 15 per cent boost was planned.

The study was ordered, it was said, because many employes are leaving the state service to take better paying jobs with the Federal government and war plants.

Minimum salary in Federal offices is $1,440 compared with $1,176 in state employment. After a year's service in the state there is an automatic increase to $1,248.

The commonwealth has approximately 26,000 employes, excluding employes in the Highway department who are paid by the day. About 17,000 would benefit from a salary increase restricted to those earning $1,000 or less.

WE'VE VOLUNTEERED For Service on the Farm Front

An Open Letter to Livestock and Poultry Owners of ADAMS COUNTY

PROTEIN feeds are scarce. We can't sell more. So what we can sell must count for more. This means we dare not waste good feed on unthrifty livestock or poultry. We must cull unprofitable producers—save extra pigs—stamp out disease and parasites—cut down mortality—prevent costly waste.

We know from our many farm contacts that many production losses are preventable. And we are convinced that our wartime food goals can be reached, without additional labor or expense, and with the feed we now have, simply by plugging unnecessary production leaks.

To this end, and as our part in helping to win the war, we are volunteering our services to all livestock and poultry owners of this community.

Regardless of the feed you use, we will gladly call at your farm to assist in such feed-saving practices as culling chickens, worming pigs, checking feed and watering space, etc.

We will also help you with "Production Surveys" of your livestock and poultry, based on a series of wartime guides, suggested and recommended by both national and state agricultural authorities.

Our service is offered solely in the interest of "More Food for Victory," and our call will not obligate you in any way. See us for a "Feed Stretcher" Survey of your farm.

SPONSORS FOR "PENNY LUNCH" IS SUGGESTED

By MARTIN H. BRACKBILL
Harrisburg, Sept. 2 (AP)—Local sponsorship of "penny lunch" programs to provide nourishing meals for Pennsylvania school children was urged today by the federal Food Distribution Administration.

John A. Conaboy, state FDA supervisor, explained the plan is part of the "nation's wartime food program" and is aimed at insuring that children, including children from low income groups, will have one nutritious meal each day. The FDA provides funds for purchasing the food.

Congress has appropriated $50,000,000 for the program's operation on a national scale. In Pennsylvania, the lunches provided food for 256,853 boys and girls in 1,735 schools last spring with school boards, parent-teacher associations and other civic groups acting as sponsors. Conaboy said the same groups could sponsor the program again this fall.

The plan provides for reimbursing sponsors monthly at the rate of two to nine cents a meal per child, depending on food used. Local agencies, supply, other necessary food, labor and equipment from their own funds, from payments for lunch service or from other sources.

Conaboy added, however, that

TOMATO CROP FOR CANNING MAY TOP '42

Harrisburg, Sept. 2 (AP)—Commercial tomato production for canning this year may exceed the 1942 Pennsylvania production by more than 19,000 tons, the state Department of Agriculture reported today.

The department estimated the 1943 tomato production at 181,700 tons on August 1 compared with 162,400 harvested the year before, while at the same time declaring plantings were increased by 2,300 acres to meet anticipated war-time needs.

The department added, however, that dry weather prevailing during August may have reduced somewhat the indicated production of 5.9 tons per acre on August 1. Last year's average production was 5.7 tons per acre.

Snap Beans Drop
The department also reported snap beans grown for commercial processing in the state will probably total 900 tons less than for last year despite a 600-acre increase in plantings.

The decline in the yield per acre, estimated at 8 of a ton less than last year, was attributed by the department to the dry conditions prevailing in farm areas producing a major part of the snap bean crop.

Milk Production
Milk production in July of 1943 was 10 million pounds below that of the same month in 1942, the department stated. Dairy herds produced 439,000,000 pounds of milk or two per cent below that the production for July of 1942 and eight per cent below that of June.

Secretary Miles Horst, at the same time, announced milk production data will be made public on a monthly basis to "provide a more complete picture of the milk industry in the state and prove more useful to those interested."

Horst explained "dairy products represented 35 per cent of Pennsylvania farm income in 1942. This is the largest single source of cash income that our farmers have. The industry last year brought our farmers $138,160,000."

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief
Many sufferers relieve nagging backaches quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatism, pain, leg pain, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

RUTH AND STARS STEAL SHOW AT BENEFIT TUSSLE

By SID FEDER
New York, Aug. 27 (AP)—There were still 35,000 lumps in 35,000 throats around the village today—all because a dozen old men walked out on a ball field.

These weren't just any 12 old gaffers, mind you. Nor was it just any old baseball clambake at the Polo Grounds yesterday. It was an $800,000 baseball show, put on by the Journal-American to sell war bonds.

Babe Ruth and the "boys" stole the show—stole it from the top "name" comedians, dance bands, movie actors and singers in show business who did their stuff during the four-hour fess. And they stole it, too, from the Giant-Yankee-Dodger All-Stars who turned in a 5-2 win over the Army's New Cumberland (Pa.) team, which was aided and abetted by Hank Greenberg, Johnny Beasley and Enos Slaughter.

The Babe poked one of Walter Johnson's still-lively slants into the upper right field deck, as the 35,000 rattled the rafters.

The Babe and Walter were two of the ancient dozen who had old pop time turn the hourglass backward to give today's fans a look at what probably was the greatest collection of baseball "ivory" ever put on display in one park.

Ex-Mayor Jimmy Walker introduced each of the diamond's diamonds. Around the infield were George Sisler, Eddie Collins and bow-legged Honus Wagner from the Hall of Fame, and Frankie the Fordham Flash Frisch, who'll probably get there one of these days.

Tris Speaker was flanked in the outer pastures by Duffy Lewis of the Boston Red Sox's mighty Lewis-Speaker-Hooper outfield, and Red Murray, who once saved a game for the New York Giants by catching a fly during a lightning storm. C. McGillicuddy, known to the trade as Connie Mack, "managed" the cast. Bill Klem, the old arbitrator in person, "umpired," and Roger Bresnahan did the catching.

It didn't matter that in fielding some of the Babe's "practice shots" Murray fell down. Speaker was practically decapitated and Collins was all but carried into right field by a line drive. The folks had a look at 'em, and the Babe finally parked one. That was the icing on the cake.

BLUE ROCKS IN DOUBLE TRIUMPH

The bats of the Wilmington Blue Rocks are beating out a rhythm that sends chills of apprehension down the spines of all those who pick Lancaster to hold its Interstate league lead.

That rhythm assumed a boogie-woogie tempo last night when the Rocks crushed Allentown 26-0 in the seven-inning first half of a double bill, winning the regulation length second game 10-2 for good measure.

A 12-run first inning with three doubles, five walks and three home runs started the Delaware club on its way in the opener. The Rocks nipped Johnny Redman for 18 hits in the nightcap.

The double-barreled charge left Wilmington virtually tied again for second place with Hagerstown, which inflicted 14 hits on two Trenton pitchers to win 8-3, and two and one-half games behind Lancaster.

McClure and Wheaton were touched for 13 hits in the opener while Fred Clemence held the first-place club to one hit, a single. Homers by Flick and Lefty gave Lancaster the needed power in the second game.

HOCKEY STAR BACK TO WAR

Pittsburgh, Aug. 28 (AP)—Charles J. (Terry) McGovern, former Canadian hockey star who was wounded three times in World War I, goes into World War II on Sept. 14.

McGovern, 49, ends a two-year effort to get into the scrap when he leaves for Poughkeepsie, N. Y., for training as a petty officer in the Maritime service.

A member of the Princess Pats, crack Canadian regiment of the first World War, Terry suffered bullet wounds in three battles, one of them the heroic capture of Ypres in Belgium.

Wounded a second time, he was left for dead on the battlefield for two days and nights. A bullet in the thigh caused complications and surgeons planned to amputate his leg.

"But I wouldn't let them do it," declared McGovern. "I wanted to play hockey and football after the war." And he did.

A native of Ottawa, he played with the Canadians from 1914 to the Armistice. Then he turned to hockey officiating in 1929, continuing until last season.

He lives here now with his wife and three children.

College Graduate Named Grid Aide

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Aug. 28 (AP)—Lester L. Leltzel, a Gettysburg college graduate in 1931, has been named assistant football coach at Mechanicsburg high school.

Former head coach at Nanty Glo high, Leltzel succeeds Harry M. Miller, of Genesee, N. Y., who was named assistant coach at Mechanicsburg recently but later resigned to accept a coaching job at Camp Hill high school.

PANTHERS FACE OLD TIME CARD WITH YOUNG 11

Pittsburgh, Aug. 31 (AP)—The boys who wear the moleskins may not be as big and may lack much of the experience of those who packed the piskin for the University of Pittsburgh in bygone years, but the schedule the Panthers face next autumn will be no less ambitious.

With Notre Dame, Nebraska, Ohio State and other traditionally powerful teams already on the list, Coach Clark Shaughnessy has announced the addition of the Great Lakes Naval Training station to bring his first Panther card up to eight games.

Great Lakes, with plenty of ex-college stars ready to pick up for the Navy where they left off for alma mater, supposedly will field one of the nation's gridiron powerhouses this season.

Coach Not Worried
But that apparently is not worrying Shaughnessy, who is inculcating his famous "T" formation into the new Pitt squad and dispensing with the power plays that made Jock Sutherland the outstanding eastern coach of the '30s.

"This is not a bad looking squad," he said. "If I had it for two years I think Pitt would be okay. But these boys are just babies. They haven't maturity and we're not going to be in a class with teams using service stars."

Shaughnessy had 75 players out for summer drills and expects many more when the squad gathers for a dinner at the university cafeteria today. But, as he pointed out, too many of them are just 17-year-olds. Draft boards may further decimate the number of mature boys available.

Large Squad
"I think it's the biggest squad of civilian players in the country," he said.

At the close of summer drills he nominated this starting lineup:

Ends—Joe Pierre, Windber and Clair Malarky, Bridgeville; tackles—George Rani, Blaw Knox and William G. G. Connellville; guards—Francis Mattioli, Brackenridge and Gary Penello, Connellville; center—Donald Fisher, Williamsport; quarterback—Cy Plazak, Brackenridge; halfbacks—Carl Mosso, East Orange, New Jersey, and Frank Knisley, Youngstown, Ohio, and fullback, Bill Ambromitas, Tamaqua.

Mosso, however, is 18, and may be lost to the armed services.

The team takes on Notre Dame in the season opener here September 25, and plays Great Lakes the following Saturday; the rest of the schedule: October 9, West Virginia; 16, Illinois at Champaign; 30, Carnegie Tech; November 6, Ohio State; 13, Nebraska at Lincoln; 20, Penn State.

WPIAL ELEVEN START FRIDAY

Pittsburgh, Sept. 2 (AP)—Though players at some of the schools have not yet begun their classwork, eight WPIAL football teams will jump the gun on the 1943 season by playing their inaugural games tomorrow night. It will be the earliest get-away in WPIAL history.

Scott's North Catholic as its opening attraction at North Braddock. Ambridge starts off at home with Monaca High as the opponent. Brownsville will be host to East Bethlehem High while Ellwood City will entertain Zelienople.

Most district schools will delay their opening until one week later and some even have their initial contests scheduled for as late as the third week in September.

The Pittsburgh City league also will have its earliest curtain raiser in many years when Schenley and Alderidge, both of which already have started training, will have their opening match September 10 at Schenley Field.

Carrick High also has training under way but with a basketball coach in charge. Jim Hurst is taking over until the regular grid mentor, Ted Lyons, returns from his vacation; next week. Carrick will open with St. Luke High Sept. 24.

City league teams will play 21 outside games this year. The league championship playoff is scheduled for November 15.

SELECT COACH
Pittsburgh, Sept. 2 (AP)—Belle Vernon high school has named Wilbur Pierce as football coach, succeeding Pete Koma who resigned to become assistant coach at Youngstown, O. East high school.

WASHINGTON TO DECIDE ON BASEBALL TOUR

By DAVE HOFF

Chicago, Aug. 28 (AP)—Baseball's idea about sending a troupe of American and National league players overseas as soon as possible after the world series is going to the War department probably for a consideration of routes and transportation, and bearing the official "OK" of Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis and the two league presidents.

"The Judge" and Presidents Ford Frick of the National and Will Harbridge of the American leagues discussed various angles of the plan for two hours yesterday in the commissioner's office but the tangible results were these two statements in a joint announcement:

"Players, managers and officials... have already manifested a warm interest."

"We are hopeful the thing will go through."

Landis thought baseball would like to have every club represented, making up two teams representative of each league but not necessarily the same players who were on this summer's all-star team.

MULES TO PLAY MOST AMBITIOUS GRID SCHEDULE

Allentown, Pa., Aug. 27—The 1943 Muhlenberg college football team will be distinctly an all-service team, made up exclusively of U. S. Marines and Navy V-12 trainees enrolled at the college. There will be no civilian players whatever on the team.

The only civilian connected with this year's Cardinal and Gray eleven will be its coach, Alvin Doggie Julian, and he will have two service men as assistants; Sgt. Luke of the U. S. Marines and Chief Petty Officer William "Dutch" Schudt, one-time Ursinus college tackle who later played with the Philadelphia Eagles for several seasons in "Pro" football.

The Mules, who open their season with Yale at New Haven on Saturday afternoon, September 11, play the most ambitious schedule in years during this wartime season. They follow through with Villanova, Lakehurst Naval Air Training Station, two games with Bucknell, Franklin and Marshall and Swarthmore on a home and home basis, play the Willow Grove Naval Air Station team, and finish up their eleven-game schedule with the Sampson (N. Y.) Naval Training Station team on November 20.

Coach Julian and his assistants have had their squad working out daily for the past two weeks. Originally, seventy-three players reported for first practice, but this squad has been weeded down to 40 men and there may be additional cuts before the opening game of the season.

Among the candidates are George Selfridge, center, a Navy trainee, who is a former Gettysburg college student.

12 Ineligible For U.S.C. Grid Squad

Los Angeles, Sept. 2 (AP)—Presaging what may be in store for other young men who want to play football, participate in Navy or Marine training programs and yet not spend too much time over the books, the Navy has ruled out 12 of Southern California's grid candidates as ineligible.

Coach Jeff Cravath got the bad news yesterday as he called a squad of 51 candidates together for the first time. Naval authorities handed him a slip of paper bearing the 12 names and saying the ineligible candidates would be out of action for at least three weeks.

That meant they probably would not be available at all. They will have to be cramming when daily practice sessions are held.

The most important defection is Jackie Fellows, outstanding back last year at Fresno State where he established a national scoring record.

Byrd And McSpaden To Clash For Title

Chicago, Sept. 2 (AP)—Two Philadelphia professionals—Harold "Jug" McSpaden and Sam Byrd—will meet over a 36-hole medal play route at Tam O'Shanter's links here October 9-10 to determine who is the 1943 open golf champ.

The two won probably the season's outstanding open tournaments, McSpaden taking the all-American open and Byrd the more recent Chicago victory national.

HORSE GETS VACATION
Greenville, Ohio, Aug. 28 (AP)—Volo Song, Hambletonian victory of 1943 and winner of $43,357.49 in the past two years, will not race in 1944. Owner Bill Stang of Brooklyn said today that the trotter would be given a year's vacation and that the Ambassador, also owned by Stang and winner of 1942 Hambletonian, would be returned to competition.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

New York, Sept. 2 (AP)—Beau Jack, whose tastes aren't exactly conservative, admired Manager Chick Vergeles' big, gaudy sedan so intensely that Chick and Co-Manager Bowman Milligan have decided to give it to the Beau if he regains the lightweight title from Bob Montgomery September 10... For the just-in-case department: The Jack-Montgomery return bout is scheduled just 111 days after their first tussle. Al Singer established the lightweight "record" by losing the crown to Tony Canzoneri 120 days after he won it from Sammy Mandell... The football Gammas aren't exactly satisfied with Emery Nix's running, but they say the TCU boy's passes just nestle into their arms the way Ed Danowski's used to.

PHILADELPHIA STORY
Philly sport scribes tell this one in explanation of the break between Bill Cox and Bucky Harris—which ought to be forgotten about now.

Seems that Cox insisted that 17-year-old Bob Finley should be the club's regular catcher and Harris held out for Tommy Livingston... Bucky argued that Livingston not only was more experienced, but that he was a better catcher and smarter than Finley... "How do you figure that out?" asked Cox. "Livingston never went to college."

SHORTS AND SHELLS
Cleo Calgagni, captain-elect of the Penn football team who was inherited by Cornell through the Navy program, won't play against his alma mammy Thanksgiving Day. Cal will leave Ithaca after the October "graduation"...

Boxing's newest twin act, Stanford and Stanley Tuckett, who look so much alike that they have to weigh them to tell who's who, operates with only one pair of ring trunks. So when they fought on the same card at the Lido arena the other night, Stanford's bout had to be delayed until Stanley returned to the dressing room with the essential garb... Manager Steve O'Neill of the Tigers recently received a check dated July 31, 1934, from the town treasurer of Bridge-water, Massachusetts. Steven then recalled that he had helped fight a forest fire when he visited the town 19 years ago, but he always figured that what he had done in Bridge-water was water under the bridge.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR
Tommy Fitzgerald, Louisville Courier-Journal: "Before the war, a football coach had aspirants for his team. Now he takes them to relieve his headaches."

SERVICE DEPT.
After noting Connie Mack's statement that baseball should continue because of the interest shown by the boys on the fighting fronts, PFC Leon Kay of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, suggests that Connie should take steps to give the Philadelphians over there something to cheer about...

The transportation shortage hasn't caused any trouble in the Navy's "Norfolk league." The latest checkup shows 41 games between the Naval Training Station and Naval Air Station teams, which can visit each other's parks on foot... The NTS won 14 one-run decisions and the NAS eight in this series.

FORESIGHT
When the Winged Commandos of the South Plains Army Air Field at Lubbock, Texas, scheduled two football games within three days this fall, they weren't taking as big a chance as you might expect... The second will be played against the station hospital team of Fort Bliss.

New York, Aug. 28 (AP)—It's hard to blast a fellow who has given fight fans their money's worth as often as Hank Armstrong, but Henner's announcement last night that he was through with boxing, except as manager of Cecil Hudson, was long overdue... We never saw Armstrong at his best, but we'd much prefer to remember him as the little fellow who won three world championships and lost them gamely than as the outworn prize fighter who shuffled around the ring swaying his head like a sea lion begging for a fish...

With that weaving style, Henry was as hard to hit as the swinging target in a shooting gallery—and Ray Robinson didn't win any marksmanship medals... The payoff was when a fan spotted Harry Mendel leaving the Garden and shouted: "We'd rather have your six-day bike races back."

A BREAK IN THE DYKES
When the White Sox heard that Eddie Rummel had been invited to call balls and strikes for the major league all-stars who likely will be sent overseas to entertain service men, someone asked Manager Jimmy Dykes: "Why don't you volunteer to umpire those North African games?" You've been insisting all along you can call 'em better from the dugout than most of Harbridge's staff does on top of the plays."

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE
George Strickler, the National Football league tub thumper, claims he's going to protest the Chicago all-star game because 20 points for the Stars were scored by ineligible players. "Harder and Graham are only college juniors," he insists. "They're not eligible until next year..." Armstrong, after seeing what Robinson had to offer, said he wouldn't rate Ray in the same class with Barney Ross. "But, of course, I fought Barney when he was really hot." Henry admitted ruefully... Sticking with tradition, Earl Ruby is getting the Louisville Courier-Journal's 20th annual all-America baseball team contest under way... Best laugh at the Garden last night: When Ham Wiloby won a prelim, Sportscenter Sammy Taub remarked: "He looks better than he did in the amateurs..." And from two rows away Jimmy Johnston shouted: "If he didn't, whatnell would I be doing with him?"

TODAY'S GUEST STAR
Charles P. Ward, Detroit Free Press: "Capt. Ray Barbuti, the old Syracuse quarter-miler, recently was discharged from a military hospital in North Africa. He had fly fever..." Babe Herman often was accused of having the same trouble but never went to a hospital for a cure..."

OVERSEAS STUFF
Ex-announcer Lief, Dave Zinkoff reports that he reached Iceland just in time to see Pvt. Benny Fried of Cleveland pitch his 15th consecutive softball victory for his outfit. The team needs to win only one more series to earn a trip to England to play the champs there... The big sport in Iceland, Zink adds, is soccer, which boasts more players than spectators... Marine Capt. Dick Belyea, former Penn half miler, is giving track instruction to officers of his scout dive bomber squadron somewhere in the South Pacific... From where "about 80 per cent of the world's tea is grown," Lieut. Frank Wright still is keeping track of Florida athletes... He reports seeing Rainey Cawthon, 1929 Gator grid captain, and Goldy Goldstein, star guard of 1923-25.

PROBLEM TO PONDER
Do you think the $800,000,000 gate will ever come back?

New York, Aug. 27 (AP)—Mike Jacobs has been absorbing a few blasts for setting a $16.50 top for tickets to tonight's Hank Armstrong-Ray Robinson fight, but Mike can take it as long as he can take it... But some of the more solvent beachcombers point out that the customers all over the country are demanding ringside seats at any price and won't go for the cheap tickets... Record stuff: George Case, with 42 thefts so far, is a good bet to win his fifth straight American league base stealing crown. Ty Cobb never won more than three in a row... BETTER THAN THROWING 'EM
Shortly after Cedric Durst resigned as manager of the San Diego Pacific Coast League club, reports Monroe McConnell, he received a notice that a package of fruit had arrived for him... Thinking about choice Imperial Valley grapefruit, Durst hurried to the express office, where he was handed a small box...

Inside he found nine lemons each numbered for a position in the lineup—and three were rotten.

The St. Louis Flyers, two-time champs of the defunct American Hockey Association, may join up with the still-hopeful American league. JUST A SUGGESTION
Ward Coff, in his seventh pro season still one of the Giants' best backs, brought his wife and two small girls—about three or four years old—to camp with him... After watching them in action for a while Owen decided that, if worst came to worst, he could put them in against the Bears and it wouldn't take long to wear down that Chicago line.

TRAVEL NOTE
In case any of the pro teams think travel is tough this year, they should ask Halfback Babe Webb, who is expected momentarily in the Green Bay camp... Babe played in the Hawaiian Senior league two years ago and was signed by the Packers last year... He couldn't make the trip in time for the season...

This year he started out to travel by Clipper plane but his passage was cancelled and he had to take a boat instead... There'll be no complaint if he has to ride in a coach seat occasionally.

POLITENESS
When the Minnesota publicity department wrote for dope on prospective football opponents, Michigan's Fred De Lano answered that Fritz Crisler will be able to call upon such players as Elroy Hirsch from Wisconsin, Paul White, Bob Wiese, Mervin Pregulman and Julius Franks, Michigan letter winners last fall, "to say nothing of your own Mr. Bill Daley, for whom we extend our heartiest thanks."

ARMSTRONG TO QUIT FIGHTING AFTER DEFEAT
New York, Aug. 28 (AP)—The amazing ring saga of Henry Armstrong ended permanently at Madison Square Garden last night and more's the pity it terminated amid boos and catcalls at the scene of some of his greatest triumphs...

The fabulous career of the 32-year-old former triple title holder came to grief against the flicking fists of youthful Ray "Sugar" Robinson who waited to an easy 10-round decision before 15,371. The gross gate was $60,789.31.

Armstrong, in his prime regarded as one of the greatest fighters ever to hop into a ring, retired once before in January, 1941, but changed his mind last year and started a comeback that has grossed him nearly $200,000 in 27 outings.

"I'm through," he said wearily. "From now on I'll manage Cecil Hudson." Hudson, a welterweight from Los Angeles, outpointed Izzy Jannazzo, New York veteran, in a six-round preliminary... "I know it looked bad," Armstrong continued, referring to the boos from the third round on. "It's my style of fighting. If Robinson had come in, instead of staying away, it would have been different..."

But Robinson, regarded in many quarters as the uncrowned welterweight champion, was content to backpedal and jab, jab, jab from long range. Only occasionally did he cut loose with the two-fisted savage attack that earned him a terrifying reputation. He seemed to hurt Armstrong on these occasions, but showed a healthy respect for his opponent and never followed up his advantage.

ARMSTRONG TO QUIT FIGHTING AFTER DEFEAT

By TED MEIER

New York, Aug. 28 (AP)—The amazing ring saga of Henry Armstrong ended permanently at Madison Square Garden last night and more's the pity it terminated amid boos and catcalls at the scene of some of his greatest triumphs...

The fabulous career of the 32-year-old former triple title holder came to grief against the flicking fists of youthful Ray "Sugar" Robinson who waited to an easy 10-round decision before 15,371. The gross gate was $60,789.31.

Armstrong, in his prime regarded as one of the greatest fighters ever to hop into a ring, retired once before in January, 1941, but changed his mind last year and started a comeback that has grossed him nearly $200,000 in 27 outings.

"I'm through," he said wearily. "From now on I'll manage Cecil Hudson." Hudson, a welterweight from Los Angeles, outpointed Izzy Jannazzo, New York veteran, in a six-round preliminary...

"I know it looked bad," Armstrong continued, referring to the boos from the third round on. "It's my style of fighting. If Robinson had come in, instead of staying away, it would have been different..."

But Robinson, regarded in many quarters as the uncrowned welterweight champion, was content to backpedal and jab, jab, jab from long range. Only occasionally did he cut loose with the two-fisted savage attack that earned him a terrifying reputation. He seemed to hurt Armstrong on these occasions, but showed a healthy respect for his opponent and never followed up his advantage.

Scaling 140 pounds to Robinson's 145, Armstrong chased the Harlem youth from start to finish, but on only two occasions did he get close enough to land some good punches. His weaving tactics from a crouching position made Robinson miss repeatedly, but not enough to reduce his big lead on points.

Armstrong, who started fighting in 1932 and has engaged in approximately 300 fights, is the only man ever to hold three world titles—featherweight, lightweight and welterweight—at the same time. At one time he won 44 bouts in a row.

Facing a fairly tough schedule, Miss Ruth will have only three of the players whom Dom Rich, now at East Pittsburgh High, directed last fall through a season of six wins, a tie and only two losses.

SPECIAL TAGS FOR HUNTING SPECIAL DEER

Harrisburg, Aug. 27 (AP)—The Pennsylvania Game commission insisted Thursday that special permits to hunt antlerless deer are necessary to prevent concentration of hunters and to protect the future of the sport.

An open season on does Dec. 13, 14 and 15 in eight northern counties has been declared to correct an unbalanced sex ratio and relieve complaints of damage to farm crops. The counties are Cameron, Clinton, Lycoming, McKean, Potter, Sullivan, Tioga and Warren.

President Roy Green of the Cameron Rod and Gun club declared the commission is "taking our northern tier counties for a ride" and despite the meat shortage is "taking this critical time to swell its coffers with $55,000 which it expects to collect."

The commission, in a statement to sportsmen who requested information on the antlerless deer season, said the permit system is required because "there might be a concentration of hunters in the affected counties that would be dangerous to them and they might take more deer than the commission desires."

The 1939 Legislature reduced the price of special permits from $2 to $1 and authorized landowners to hunt antlerless deer without permits. The commission asserted "it was clearly the intent of the Legislature that the Game commission shall issue permits whenever in its opinion it is necessary to avoid overcrowding as well as overshooting in a given area."

Recommendations on the open season were submitted to leaders of organized sportsmen three months before adoption by the commission, said the statement.

Shaughnessy Puts Spectator On Squad

Pittsburgh, Sept. 2 (AP)—The draft has been taking his best grid prospects so Pitt Coach Clark Shaughnessy yesterday did a little drafting of his own.

Just 13 aspirants turned up for a special practice. Shaughnessy counted 'em and looked around. A young husky in civilian clothes was standing on the sidelines watching the proceedings with interest. "Come here," beckoned Shaughnessy. Steve Polach is now trying out for guard.

Louis In Shenango On September 16

Greenville, Pa., Sept. 2 (AP)—The appearance of Sgt. Joe Louis, former heavyweight title king, at the Shenango personnel replacement depot, has been changed from Sept. 16 to Sept. 20, it has been announced.

Corp. Walker Smith, known to fight fans as Sugar Ray Robison, Pvt. George J. (Jackie) Wilson, and Corp. Robert J. Payne will appear on the program with Louis, during which the latter will box a three-round exhibition with Sgt. George Nicholson, his one-time sparring mate.

WOMAN COACH CONFUSED BY GRID TACTICS

State College, Pa., Aug. 28 (AP)—"Football is a more complicated game than I ever dreamed it was." That was the pronouncement of Pauline Rugh, new coach of the Bell Township High Gridders, at the end of the first of three days' tutelage at the hands of Coach Bob Higgins of Penn State.

Returning to her alma mater for instruction on how to prep her team, whose season begins two weeks hence, Miss Rugh found much that was puzzling. In fact, she said:

"Bewildering is the word for it." She spent two hours in "skull practice" Thursday with Higgins and one of his assistants, Earle Edwards, before going to the football field to see the Nittany Lions put the principles into practice. The coaches used a blackboard to illustrate their theories and Coach Rugh took notes.

Watches Drill
At the field, she renewed acquaintances with college friends and watched Higgins, Edwards, line coach Joe Bedenk, backfield coach Al Michaels and freshman coach Marty McAndrews put a squad of 50 through its paces.

While Miss Rugh continued to maintain absolute secrecy about the "surprise (even to myself)" system which she intends to adopt for her proteges, she evinced much interest in the single wingback, unbalanced line version of Warner play expounded to her by Higgins and his aides.

She was astonished to learn that the tackles played side by side on offense but grasped the idea quickly when it was explained to her.

Has Few Vets

Facing a fairly tough schedule, Miss Rugh will have only three of the players whom Dom Rich, now at East Pittsburgh High, directed last fall through a season of six wins, a tie and only two losses.

Bell township's first opponent will be Derry township September 11 and the school has games also with Ligonier, Plum township, Freeport and Apollo. Negotiations are under way for a couple of games more.

New Coaches Start Football Workouts

Beaver Falls, Pa., Aug. 28 (AP)—Three new head coaches are among the mentors of 11 Beaver county high schools conditioning their squads for the coming football season.

The Freedom Bulldogs are now being tutored by Dick Fruth, succeeding Michael Joseph, who has become physical instructor of Army aviation students at the University of Pittsburgh.

Leland Schachern, formerly at Hopewell township, now heads the Beaver Falls club, replacing Ensign Alex Ufema. Alquiappa's former junior high mentor, Fred Milano-vich, took over Schachern's duties at Hopewell.

The season's first game books Monaca at Ambridge Friday night, September 3.

QUATRAINS

Optional
If fortune is by all required
Then none should rest when he is tired.
And none should pause the whole day long
To listen to a cardinal's song.
Almost Certain
When William unto Jane proposed,
With, "no," she thought the matter closed,
But William was to think inclined
If asked again she'd change her mind.

A Lawn
A lawn no single word can speak,
Yet passers-by from week to week,
If it be trim, are sure to know
The worth of him who keeps it so.
War Bond
Heed nothing that the scoffers say,
To doubt be cold.
The war bond that you buy today

ULTIMATE WORTH
Will only the triumphs count in the day when all things are clear?
Is man to be judged at the last as his fellows have judged him here?
Is there only one goal to be reached and only one way to win?
Then what will be said for the ones who lose when the records of all are in?
And what of those gentler souls who never quite mastered skill,
Who had none of the champion's strength and none of the will to kill?
Who rejoiced in the gift of life, its friendships, its laughter and song,
And were well content with the lesser joys which unto the meek belong?
Will only the scores be seen? Will grandeur alone be grand?
Will only what men call fine the praise of the Lord command?
Will they measure the distance run and the time, as is done on earth,
Or will laughter and love and faith be the ultimate proof of worth?

HOME ON LEAVE
There's a twinkle in her eye
Haven't seen for quite a while.
Even strangers passing by
Catch the beauty of her smile.
What's the reason? I believe
It's because he's home on leave.

I've been whistling 'round the place
Tunes I fancied I'd forgot.
There's a grin upon my face.
Now my troubles matter not.
Ask me why? I'll not deceive.
It's because he's home on leave.

Janet hums a bit of song:
Dances lightly to and fro;
All is right she fancied wrong
Just a day or two ago.
Why has Janet ceased to grieve?
It's because he's home on leave.

Now the laughter's as of old!
Now the table's gay once more!
Now the jokes are being told!
Home is as it was before.
Happiness we now retrieve,
Just because he's home on leave.

NEVER GIVE UP
Never give up if it's worth the doing!

Never give up if the end be right!
If it's a purpose that's worth pursuing,
Go for it, morning and noon and night!
Never give up though your best friends drop you,
Saying that only a fool keeps on.
If it be worthy, let nothing stop you!

Stick to your cause till your strength is gone.
Never give up how so oft you blunder!
Failure is part of a man's career.
Sink if you must, but don't stay under!

Keep a stout heart and persevere!
Out of their failures and sharp distresses,
Out of the swamps of despair and doubt,
Brave men have come to their best successes.

Never give up while your strength holds out!

Flashes Of Life

BUFFALO BURGERS

Price, Utah (AP)—Choice steaks—and no red ration stamps.
State game officials will sell cuts from three buffaloes, killed after complaints they had damaged crops and fences.

COWBOY CHIVALRY

Oakland, Calif. (AP)—A robber dressed as a cowboy approached a soldier and his girl, demanded money.
Cpl. George Groman told him he was cash-less, but the girl offered the $3 she had.
The bandit politely declined, and vanished.

BLACKOUT OUT

Joplin, Mo. (AP)—The Civilian Defense Council voted to skip next Tuesday's state-wide practice blackout.
The council figured there were too many complaints already. A circus will be in town—and Tuesday is payday for thousands of soldiers at nearby Camp Crowder.

MISTAKEN HAUL

Chicago (AP)—A thief who stole a carton labeled "cheese" from a street car didn't save any ration points.
The box contained 450 iron bolts destined for a manufacturing plant.

ALL IS CONFUSION

Boston (AP)—The Boston ration board, which has often been asked to interpret OPA directives issued through it, is looking for an interpreter itself.
The board recently asked all Boston merchants to file schedules of ceiling prices.
Charlie Yee, laundryman, complained with the order—but, his list was submitted in Chinese.

MOONSHINE, 1943 STYLE

Columbia, S. C. (AP)—"Got your ration ticket, Mister?"
That's the question moonshiners are asking prospective customers these days. S. S. Sligh, federal alcoholic tax unit investigator.
And here's why: Moonshiners must have sugar to ferment their liquor. Thus, no sugar, no liquor, no moonshiners.

KEEP OFF

Boise, Idaho (AP)—To settle a fishing argument, Howard H. Sell, of Pocatello appealed for aid.
The attorney general responded:
"We are of the opinion that it would be unlawful to fish for trout from the back of a camel."

DO NOT DISTURB

Globe, Ariz. (AP)—The town council voted to awaken copper workers by sounding the fire whistle at 6 a. m.
Only one protest was made—that by Fire Chief Fred Barrett, who complained:
It would arouse his firemen, sleeping after swing shift labors.

EXCUSE, PLEASE

Phoenix, Ariz. (AP)—A private, somewhat shaggy, failed to pass inspection.
"There was no one to cut my hair," he explained.
He's the company barber.

LOSER WINS

Santa Monica, Calif. (AP)—William Chain, Los Angeles, charged with violating the dimout ordinance, told the court he had lost his false teeth, and was driving with his headlights shining brightly in an effort to find them.
"A personal crisis," ruled Police Judge Samuel J. Crawford, suspending a $10 fine.

SMOKED DUCK

San Francisco (AP)—Because dealers' ammunition stocks are low, ducks this year won't be scared out of northern California rice fields with shotguns and rifles.
But the Regional War Production Board has come through—it has released more than five thousand smoke bombs.

NO BULL

Minneapolis (AP)—Just because your bull is sick you can't get extra gasoline rations to go and sit with him, the consolidated ration board here decided.

A Minneapolis man applied for extra tickets, and said he needed them to visit his Jersey bull on a nearby farm a couple of times a month. The bull had had a relapse after an injury, he said.
But the board said, no.

PROPHET—AND LOSS

Albany, Ore. (AP)—Seth T. French glanced at the clear skies and decided not to throw a canvas over the temporarily unshingled roof of his bedroom.
Hours later he was awakened by a heavy downpour in his face.
French is a local weather observer.

HIGH FLIER

Mount Kisco, N. Y. (AP)—The man on the flying trapeze has nothing on John Williams.

Williams was driving his car on Lexington avenue here when it jumped a curb, struck and severed a telephone pole, knocked down several trees, overturned their righted itself and finally bounced up onto an apartment house porch.
When onlookers arrived on the scene they found Williams still in the driver's seat, gripping the steering wheel—unhurt.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

Just a note to express my sincere appreciation for the fine thing you are doing for our servicemen. This is something I should have done and meant to do months ago but somehow I just never seemed to get around to doing it. However, if you will forgive my neglect, I should like to make known my gratitude now for your service.

After being away from home for a time one usually loses contact with his old surroundings and acquaintances, but not so with us. No matter where we go, through the medium of "The Times" we know exactly what is going on back home and feel that we still share in those activities although we are far away. For this splendid service, again let me say "Thank You!"

Sincerely yours,
PVT. DONALD W. FAIR,
Company B,
Lindley Hall, Room 301,
University of Kansas,
Lawrence, Kansas

Dear Sir:

Just a few lines to thank you again for sending me The Gettysburg Times while I am in the Army, and to ask you to change the address a little. I am still at Fort Monmouth, but have been assigned to Headquarters Company.

I have been made an assistant instructor at the Officers Radio School. Part of my job is teaching the lieutenants code and radio procedure. It isn't very interesting work (to me, that is), but very essential in modern warfare. I can't tell you much about the stuff we have here; but you can bet it is better than Hitler thinks it is.

I have been expecting to be shipped overseas for several months now, but am still kept on the job here. I would certainly like to go across with the rest of the boys but I guess some of us have to stay here and help train the others.

I have noticed in the paper that a lot of the local boys are really in the thick of things and doing a swell job. Here's wishing them all the luck in the world and hoping that they can all be home soon again.

Thanks once again for "The Times" and hoping that this finds everyone in the home town enjoying the best of health. I will close for this time.

One of the boys,
PFC DAVID R. MARSHALL,
Hq. Co., 15th Sig. Tr. Regt.,
Ft. Monmouth, N. J.

Aug. 23, 1943

Dear Sirs:

I have found some time to write so I thought I'd write and see if I could have the paper sent to me. I received it while I was in "boot" camp but since then I haven't received any. I left Bainbridge, Maryland, April 30, 1943. I have been traveling ever since. I am now somewhere in the Aleutians.

I wish I could tell where all I have been but as you know I am not allowed. Our boys have had many great experiences and I know some of them you would never believe. Now I will tell you about this place where we live. We live in tents. Four fellows live in each tent. We have coal stoves for heat and we get electric lights in yesterday.

We get good chow. We have a small canteen to go to and a small theater. We work hard and are really doing our part. Paper here is scarce. I am using my last two sheets to write to you. We have "V" mail to use. If we want stationery we have to send home for it. Well my news isn't very much, so I will close for now.

THIS ISN'T BALONEY

Chicago (AP)—Former Alderman Jacob M. Garvey, now a lieutenant colonel on duty in the Pacific wrote his friend, Judge Oscar S. Caplan, that he would like some salami.

Said Judge Caplan: "Jake will get so much salami that he'll be using it to club the Japs."

BATTLE

Richmond, Calif. (AP)—The champion women welders of the Richmond and Oakland, Calif., shipyards have been matched in a contest—and blood will flow freely.

If Richmond's representative, Miss Gora Lee Clonts, 20, loses, her co-workers will donate 500 pints of blood to the Red Cross blood bank.

Oakland supporters will give 100 pints if their candidate, Mrs. Edna Slocum, loses.

KITTY LEFT

San Diego, Calif. (AP)—Ross B. Smith, second class seaman, fell 35 feet through a skylight—into a large bowl of steaming soup on a Navy stove.

Hospital physicians found he was uninjured.

New River, N. C. (AP)—Col. Samuel Calvin Cumming, a Marine Corps officer here, is looking forward to the time he can go back to his birthplace—and he hopes to take his whole regiment with him.

The colonel's parents were serving there as missionaries at the time of his birth.

SCHOOL HEADS STUDY HARVEST HELP SYSTEMS

A plan "to increase the efficiency" of school children employed on farms and orchards this fall was recommended to local boards by the county school board at the conclusion of a meeting with school principals, fruit growers and farm labor heads, Tuesday evening at the court house.

The plan calls for the schools to hold assemblies or group meetings to impress upon the pupils the fact that while they are in the orchards they are to be working under the supervision of the school authorities just as though they were attending school in the classroom and that their attendance, conduct and the quality and quantity of their work will be checked by the teacher, parent, or manager of the orchard or farm on which they work.

Special forms were established to be filled in by the grower or parent giving the number of hours the child worked, his conduct and the quality of his work, and the kind of work he has done. This form will be given to each student when schools close in October to help with the apple harvest and the youngsters will turn the form over to the parent or manager who will return the form to the principal at the end of the working season.

Expect Better Work

The record, upon its return, will be kept as part of the permanent record of the pupil and will be among the records turned over to prospective employers or higher schools when the pupil seeks his records after graduation.

By having such a record and by letting the students know that the check will be made upon them, the school authorities believe that the youngsters will be more likely to do better work than they otherwise would if there were no "strings" attached to their conduct during the two-week period most schools are planning to close.

Suggest Special Training

The forms will also give the school heads a better estimate of the amount of work done when they report to state authorities on the activities of the pupils following the re-opening of school this fall.

To make certain that all students do as good a job as possible the principals will ask fruit growers to call them immediately if any pupil fails to do a workmanlike job while employed.

The forms will go to these students who do not plan to work during the period of school suspension and are to be filled out by the parents by putting the word "vacation" where the kind of work would be filled in by the employer. In that manner, school heads said, the principals can have an accurate knowledge of how many help with the harvest during the season.

The resolution passed by the board also asks local school boards to see that "prior to going into the fields, preparation should be made and instruction given for the type of work that is to be done to the end that the experience may be made educationally beneficial for the pupil. . . . Such instruction will increase the efficiency of the workers and protect his growing stock."

ETL Office to Help

Arrangements were made with the county Emergency Farm Labor office at Gettysburg to provide pupil labor for those growers who call the office for additional help.

The office in turn will call upon the schools to send labor to various farms in the vicinity of the school as needed.

The principals and school board discussed the possibility of negotiating contracts between the school principal and the fruit growers providing some form of insurance in case any of the children are hurt while picking and some method of setting a fair price and fair hours for student labor. Such a contract, it was believed would protect both the grower and students by making it a more business-like transaction and thus impressing on students that they actually were to work rather than play and at the same time prevent incidents such as were said to have happened in previous years when growers promised one rate of pay and paid off at another.

The plan will be purely voluntary. The group decided after Harrison F. Snyder, head of the county Agricultural Adjustment Agency, M. T. Hartman, county farm agent, and a number of principals protested that many growers would object to signing that type of contract because they are "sick and tired of having to go through all kinds of red tape for everything they want," Mr. Snyder said.

While most growers have compensation insurance on their workers, the school men decided to find out whether or not the insurance extends to workers under 18 years of age and to let the growers know what changes may be necessary to coverage down to cover the students. Whether or not the grower makes those changes will be left entirely to the grower, it was decided.

There are a number of methods of closing schools to allow the youngsters to help with the orchards, the county board was told. Franklin township consolidated school at Cashtown will be suspended during the entire apple season while at the present time it is

Fairfield Elects New H.S. Teacher

Mrs. Geraldine Bream, wife of a Gettysburg Lutheran Seminary student, was named teacher of social studies and English for Fairfield high school at a meeting of the Fairfield school board Tuesday evening. Mrs. Bream, who formerly taught in the Nebraska and South Williamsport schools succeeds Mrs. Margaret Bowling, of New Oxford, who resigned Monday.

Eighty-five students are attending the Fairfield high school including 25 in the Freshman class. Only five of the students, including one each from the three upper classes and two from the Freshman grades are working in orchards and farms while the remainder are attending classes. Dr. Anson Hamm, principal of the school, reported.

118TH YEAR IS OPENED TODAY BY SEMINARY

"The Foundation of a Radiant Ministry," was outlined by Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president of Gettysburg college in an address Wednesday morning to the students of the Lutheran Theological Seminary here who gathered at the Church of the Abiding Presence on the seminary campus for the service opening the institution's 118th year.

"The great day of the Christian minister is just coming," Dr. Hanson told the students, "for the world is in a period of change, when it is imperative for the ministers to bring to it the radiance of God."

"The first requirement of a minister is a disciplined, organized and masterful life," Dr. Hanson declared in pointing out examples of men who by their "silent preaching" by leading good lives have done more than by their preaching in the pulpit.

"It is a terrible thing to speak for God," Dr. Hanson declared in urging the students to pray and to think only of service and love for God. "If God is in his proper place, all other things will be in their own proper positions," he asserted.

The minister will often find himself discouraged, but should not give in to his discouragement because, "when you think you are the worst failure, that is when God is working in you to do the greatest good," the speaker said.

27 New Students

As an example he spoke of a minister who died feeling himself a failure but who during his ministry converted a Chinese sailor named Soong, whose sons and daughters are now in high positions in China and who are responsible for the fact that "China has taken longer steps towards Christ at this time than any other so-called pagan country."

One of Soong's daughters is Madame Chiang Kai Chek.

Twenty-seven new men and one woman are among the 89 students at the seminary. Twenty-four new students are in the Junior class and two new men and the woman have joined the middle class. There are 27 juniors, 33 middlers and 29 seniors enrolled at the seminary.

Classes began Thursday at 8 a. m.

suspended for the 27 students who are picking peaches and tomatoes and in session for the others.

Possible School Schedules
A resolution by the board stating that it can suspend school for any or all students allows this elasticity Clay A. McCauslin, principal of the school, said.

At Fairfield, Dr. Anson Hamm reported, the school board will suspend sessions for the high school students and possibly the eighth grade during the apple harvest but will keep the remainder of the students at the school during the period.

The county board also recommended to the local boards a plan whereby older children in the grades could be freed during the afternoons to help their parents at the farm or at home. If enough parents wish their children at home to "help out" in the afternoons during the harvesting season up to and including November 8 the schools can hold recitation periods for the students in grades 5 to 8 from 8 a. m. to 11:30 a. m. and then permit the children to go home. Those in grades 1 through 4 will have a play and study period in the morning and then will recite during the afternoon. Older children in grades 5 through 8 whose parents do not need them at home during the afternoon will have a study period until the close of school in the afternoon.

About 20 school heads met for the session.

The next meeting of the county school board will be held September 27 at 8:30 p. m. in the office of the county superintendent of schools, J. Floyd Slaybaugh, at the court house.

"We propose to enroll a large corps of women from Adams county to participate in many phases of the drive to raise our quota of $2,134,100 in the Third War Loan drive," Mrs. Bream said. "We feel that we are a vital part of this all-out effort on the home front and we propose to exert every effort possible to put this county 'over-the-top' in the September drive."

Set Up Organization
Mrs. Bream has practically completed her organization work.

Mrs. J. Walter Coleman is vice chairman of the county group. Mrs. Frank Kramer is chairman of the Gettysburg group with Mrs. R. D. Wickerham as co-chairman.

The following women have been appointed chairmen of the various community groups:

Mrs. Delta Foke, Abbottstown; Mrs. Georgiana Fink, New Oxford; Mrs. Eugene Elgin, East Berlin; Mrs. Ira Henderson, Fairfield; Mrs. Blaine G. Walter, Biglerville; Mrs. Eva Rexroth, Arendtsville; Mrs. Steele Stuebel, York Springs; Miss Irene Miller, McSherrystown; Miss Marion Biggs, assisted by Mrs. Josephine McClellan, Orrtanna, and Mrs. H. A Blue Star Brigade unit may be organized in the county. The brigade will consist of wives, daughters, sweethearts or friends of those in service who will pledge to buy or sell $1,000 worth of war bonds during the campaign. Mrs. Edward Martin, First Lady of Pennsylvania, is honorary chairman of the state unit.

The Mount dean however feels that the increased speed of instruction is proving a hardship on the students. "A four-year course is really necessary if one is to allow the students to get the full benefit of college," he asserts.

"But for the duration of the war we will have to forego that and try to pour as much information into the students as possible with the hope that much of it will remain."

Navy slang and designations have taken over the Mount, where 205 V-12 students in white Navy uniforms are completing their studies to become deck officers and 110 V-5 Naval cadets in slate-green are training to become pilot officers.

The Navy men "go aloft," the floors are "decks," the main entrance to the main buildings is the "quarterdeck" and all other sections have been renamed after the designations given similar sections on ships.

DECREE FILED IN EQUITY CASE

A "decree pro confesso," similar to a default judgment, has been entered against George A. Shinham, former manager of the Elevation orchards, in the equity action brought against him by Harvey P. and Ruth B. Jones, Merion, and Ernestine Plummer, Philadelphia, owners of the orchards near Fairfield.

The decree was entered August 26 by the deputy prothonotary, Miss Edna Eicholtz, "due to the failure of Shinham to order the case upon the argument list for hearing and failure to file an answer as required by the equity rules in the bill in equity filed by the owners June 24."

In the bill Jones had asked Shinham to give an accounting of the financial affairs of the Elevation orchards during the last year and claimed that the accounts were $4,000 short. The bill also claimed Shinham had "sold farm equipment, fruit and an automobile" without permission or accounting for the sales and that he had "prevented Harold Carson," recently named manager "from taking over his duties as manager."

The V-mail message, dated August 11, states that Oyler, who is attached to reconnaissance troops, is "well and okay." His outfit is assigned the task of scouting enemy positions and gun emplacements ahead of advancing Yankee troops. He also mentions the extremely hot, dry weather in Sicily.

Oyler enlisted in the tank corps last August and was sent to Fort Knox. He will be 20 years old on September 7.

ST. MARY'S HAS ACCELERATED ITS SCHEDULE

Mt. St. Mary's, second oldest Catholic college in America, has ripped apart the regular schedule of activities that has served it well for well over the century mark and, accelerated by war time necessity, is now starting new classes every four months.

The Rev. Dr. John F. Cogan, dean of the school who confesses that "we thought we were busy before the Navy arrived, but now we find that we were only walking fast then," expects that soon only a few civilians will be left to attend the school.

The 54 new civilian students who started studies at the college in July have already been whittled down to nearly bedrock by calls to the armed services. A few have already been sworn into the Navy and will soon exchange their civilian clothes for Navy uniforms. Most will continue on in their regular classes at the Mount, merely exchanging their status from civilian to military standing.

The remainder of the civilians are 4-Fs who may be reclassified, boys under 18 and pre-seminary students. Those students planning to enter the priesthood will not be called up for service under present regulations, Dr. Cogan said.

Civilian classes have been worked into the regular V-12 Navy program. New civilian classes begin every 16 weeks with a one-week vacation between the semesters. The next class begins November 1.

While upperclassmen in the Naval program are continuing their regular course of studies, all have to take as electives some mathematical course from among the number required by the navy. Freshmen must take prescribed Navy courses.

So far the only holiday scheduled for the year is Christmas Day, when the civilian students may go home if they can reach their homes and return within the 24 hours.

The seminary is continuing its regular schedule of courses, with the institution planning to open next Wednesday with 85 students. While there has been no "speeding up" of the seminary program due to the war, Dr. Cogan said he expected that there may be some such increase in the tempo of the seminary in order to turn out priests faster because of the war emergency.

The Mount dean however feels that the increased speed of instruction is proving a hardship on the students. "A four-year course is really necessary if one is to allow the students to get the full benefit of college," he asserts.

"But for the duration of the war we will have to forego that and try to pour as much information into the students as possible with the hope that much of it will remain."

Josephine produced 13,600 pounds of milk and 516 pounds of butterfat during the year ending July 30. Her nearest competitor, Pet, a registered Guernsey in the herd of Norman J. King, York Springs, produced 9,101 pounds of milk and 476.6 pounds of butterfat.

Mildred Independence Pride, a registered Holstein in the herd of Edgar W. Weaver, Gettysburg R. 4, has produced more than 3,000 pounds of butterfat in her lifetime and has received a certificate from the Pennsylvania Dairymen's Association, the report disclosed.

Another cow in the Weaver herd, Vera Model Independence, which died recently, was the only other county cow to produce more than 3,000 pounds of butterfat. In the nearly ten years she was on test she produced 96,356 pounds of milk and 3,338.8 pounds of butterfat.

There were 416 cows in the county association during all of the year. The total cows tested was 467. During the year, 77 cows were disposed of with the largest number, 22, being removed from the herds because of low production. Four died and five were removed because of old age. Fourteen were sold for dairy purposes.

Average production was a little lower last year with more cows on test than during any year since the establishment of the association 16 years ago. The average cow gave 7,198 pounds of milk and 284.6 pounds of butterfat. The average number of cows on test was 328.68 an increase of 11 over the previous highest in 1940. The association had 253.07 cows on test during its first year, 1928.

Herd Records
The value of the milk and butterfat given by the average cow was $241.13 and the total cost of feed for the cows on an average was $97.38. The value of the product above the feed costs was given as $143.75. The average feed cost per 100 pounds of milk was $1.35 and the average feed cost per pound of butterfat was 34 cents.

Seven herds with an average of five or more cows produced an average of more than 300 pounds of butterfat. B. J. Griffe's herd led the list with the 11.75 cows on test producing an average of 10,693 pounds of milk and 406.6 pounds of butterfat. The other herds included: Norman J. King, York Springs R. 1, 21.16 cows, 7,879 pounds of milk, 380.9 pounds fat; Joseph A. Stoner, East Berlin R. 2, 16.85 cows, 8,088 pounds milk, 327 pounds fat; Edgar Weaver, 32.66 cows, 9,206 pounds milk, 320.7 pounds fat; W. Clayton Jester, Biglerville, 19.72 cows, 6,743 pounds milk, 303.6 pounds fat; H. M. Cater, Gettysburg R. 2, 26.71 cows, 8,342 pounds milk, 300.3 pounds fat, and Edgar H. Leer, York Springs R. 1, 33.46 cows, 8,627 pounds milk, 300.2 pounds fat.

A total of 115 cows gave more than 300 pounds of butterfat with 96 giving between 300 and 400 pounds of fat, 18 between 400 and 500 pounds and Josephine alone going over the 500 mark.

The 19 cows that produced over 400 pounds of butterfat included: B. J. Griffe herd, Josephine, R.H., 13,600 pounds milk, 516 pounds fat; Bossey, GR.J., 8,881 pounds milk, 454.3 pounds fat; Daisy, R.H., 10,995 pounds milk, 441.9 pounds fat; Norman J. King herd, Pet, R.G., 9,101 and 476.6; Judy, R.G., 9,047 and 461; Helen, R.G., 9,597 and 450.5; Adeline, R.G., 8,632 and 448.8; Punch, GR.G., 8,576 and 415.2; Betty, R.G., 8,557 and 411.3; Beauty, R.G., 9,044 and 402.2. Herd of A. Irvin Hostetter, Littlestown R. 2, Lizzy, mixed, 8,389 and 426; Oelia, mixed, 9,067 and 412.6. Edgar W. Weaver herd, Lena, R.H., 12,104 and 425.6; Specks, R.H., 11,634 and 403.4. H. M. Cater, Gettysburg R. 2, Abbie, R.H., 12,503 and 423.5; Star, R. H., 12,416 and 422.2. Joseph A. Stoner, East Berlin R. 2, Beauty, mixed, 8,744 and 415.4. W. Clayton Jester, Biglerville, No. 19, R.G., 9,029 and 414.8, and John W. Lucebaugh, Hanover R. 3, No. 13, Gr.G., 10,162 and 402.4.

To Enter State Chess Tournament

J. W. Stevenson, Orrtanna, is entering the Pennsylvania chess tournament at Pittsburgh, September 4, 5 and 6. Mr. Stevenson is representing Gettysburg in this tournament and said that he will make an attempt to have next year's tournament held at Gettysburg.

Mr. Stevenson has not had much "over the board" practice since gas rationing started but has been playing "correspondence" chess under the auspices of the Correspondence Chess League of America.

He is at present playing 18 games with opponents in California, Texas, Indiana, Wisconsin, Vermont, Virginia and New York. He says that "mail order chess" is very interesting and believes that it is improving his game.

Elect Teachers At East Berlin

Two teachers have been elected to the East Berlin high school faculty.

Miss Edna Marie Hipwell, Narberth, graduate of Lower Merion high school and Temple university, will be the new music supervisor and teacher of English succeeding Miss Elizabeth Rinard, Somerset, who has accepted the music supervisory position in Kane high school.

During high school, Miss Hipwell won the American Legion Auxiliary medal for scholarship, was a member of the National Honor society, first cellist in the All-State high school orchestra and state champion cellist. In college she was a member of the orchestra, a cappella choir and ensemble. She was also active in intra-mural sports.

Miss Eleanor Vogt, Philadelphia, recent graduate of Temple university, who majored in physical education and minored in English, social studies and biological science, will replace Miss Edna Sorber who has accepted a position in her home district in Berks county. While in high school and college, Miss Vogt was active in all branches of athletics, having been captain of Temple Mermaids and having played varsity basketball, hockey and tennis.

During her senior year at Temple she was part time physical education instructor at Melrose academy, Philadelphia. During the past three summers she has been swimming instructor at a girls' camp in New York.

The East Berlin schools will open on Tuesday, Sept. 7, at 8:30 a. m.

Martha Martin At Orthopedic Camp

Martha Martin, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Martin, Gettysburg R. 4, returned last Thursday from White Haven, an orthopedic summer camp in the Pocono mountains, where she had spent the last eight weeks swimming and hiking and continuing water treatments that two years ago restored nearly normal use of her left leg after the child was stricken with infantile paralysis.

The girl's trip to the camp was arranged by the Crippled Children's society of Adams county and the county Infirmary Paralysis society. A spokesman for the societies today said that Martha apparently has "benefited greatly" by the two months she spent at the camp.

She was one of 92 children from many parts of the state who spent the vacation period at the resort. Adams county was permitted to send only one camper.

Martha has discarded braces she formerly used for her left leg and now requires special support for that limb only when she takes long walks.

College Graduate Reported Wounded

First Lieut. James L. White, 25, Ardmore, a graduate of Gettysburg college with the class of 1941, has been reported as wounded in action.

Following his graduation, Lt. White entered the service two days later as a second lieutenant in a tank corps. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Erskine L. White, and was captain of the Haverford township high school football team while a student there.

The wounded man is married. His brother, George R., who is a first lieutenant with the Marine Corps in the Pacific area, holds Purple Heart and Silver Star awards.

26-Year-Old Flag Displayed For Son

A service flag that was hung 26 years ago when his father went to war was displayed last week for Howard W. Sheffer, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Sheffer, North Stratton street, when he reported for active duty with the U. S. Navy.

The 17-year-old Sheffer youth who would have been a senior at Gettysburg high school during the coming year if he had chosen to finish his school career now, enlisted in the Navy earlier this summer. On August 25 he reported to York and August 26 left Harrisburg for an "unannounced destination," according to word received by his parents. Sheffer won his football team manager.

Howard W. Sheffer, Sr., served in the Army in World War I. He is a former commander of the local post of the American Legion.

HUNTERS MAY USE '42 TAGS EXTRA MONTH

In a special announcement today, Ross L. Leffler, president of the Pennsylvania Game commission, said that the Commission, after conferring with the Department of Revenue, has decided to honor the 1942 licenses until the end of September.

That decision was brought about because distribution of new hunting licenses will be completed about a month later than usual this year, "due mainly to priority war printing contracts over which the Commonwealth has no control," it was stated.

Expect New Tags Soon

"The new licenses and tags, which are usually in the hands of the county treasurers and other issuing agents before September 1 (the old licenses expire August 31), will probably not be available to all license purchasers until about September 27."

"In order that nimrods who desire to hunt rails, gallinules, coots, ducks and geese, the seasons for which begin in September, may not be penalized by the Commonwealth's inability to make deliveries as anticipated, the 1942 licenses will be honored until the end of September," Mr. Leffler continued.

The Department of Revenue has arranged to ship some licenses to county treasurers by the end of this week to supply those who have mislaid or lost the 1942 permits, those who did not have 1942 licenses or those who may desire to apply for antlerless deer permits.

Must Have License

County Treasurer John W. Brehm said today that none of the licenses has been received in Adams county so far. However, he pointed out, a number of hunters have already turned in the money for their licenses, and the permits will be sent to them by the treasurer as soon as they arrive. Others who may wish to pay for the licenses now in order to obtain them immediately upon their arrival will also receive that service, Mr. Brehm said.

The state Game commission has asked all persons who do not need licenses immediately to refrain from applying for their new permits until a general release date, to be fixed by the Revenue Department later. Those who have licenses now are urged to use the '42 tags until the end of September.

However, hunters who are engaged in the sport during September must have licenses, it was stated, either 1942 or 1943. "No receipts of any kind will be honored in lieu of the license," the state Game commission head warned.

New Schedule In Shutz Case

Walter H. Compton, referee in bankruptcy for the Middle District of the U. S. Court in Pennsylvania, has filed an amended distribution of the assets in the Cross Keys inn bankruptcy proceedings in which he rules out federal and most state tax claims, cuts the amount given by the Littlestown National bank but increases the sum allowed C. H. Bittinger, Berwick township.

The amended distribution and a "three-page opinion which accompanied it" were handed down by Mr. Compton as of August 23. If no exceptions or objections are filed within 10 days of that date, the referee's report will be confirmed finally and the trustee will be directed to make distribution in accordance therewith.

Sustains Exceptions

In the opinion Mr. Compton rules on exceptions which were entered August 10 at a hearing in Harrisburg, by Robert M. Glass, Esq., one of Mr. Bittinger's attorneys. The exceptions were taken to the first schedule of distribution which was filed by Mr. Compton on July 24.

Glass' exceptions related principally to the allowance to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania of its claim of $1,196.46 for unemployment compensation and the claim of the collector of internal revenue for $2,022.26 for social security payments. Glass claimed Bittinger held a prior lien and has been sustained in that position.

The change in the sum allowed the Littlestown bank was made on corrections of interest computations and through a separation of the various tracts sold at Cross Keys last January rather than considering the sale's lump sum as was done first.

Bank Allowance Cut
An earlier award of $83 to Adams county for mercantile taxes is disallowed in the new order because "it was proved as a priority debt and not as a lien."

At the August hearing in Harrisburg, it developed that labor claims, allowed in the first distribution schedule, had been paid previously. Other technical errors in the original schedule also are corrected. Unpaid real estate taxes are allowed in the new schedule as is the original. They total $1,128.27.

$100,000 Goes Unpaid
The sum of $113.33 is allowed the state for unemployment compensation tax due before the date when Mr. Bittinger acquired his lien.

The Littlestown National now is allowed $13,784.82 instead of $15,018.87. The bank stands to lose more than $10,000.

Mr. Bittinger's sum is increased from $15,929.20 to $20,695.17. The Arrangements were completed Wednesday for the presentation of "See Here Mr. Smith," musical revue by seventy-six members of the Carlisle Barracks detachment in the Gettysburg high school auditorium in the interest of the Third War Bond campaign.

The two-hour musical show will be presented on the night of Tuesday, September 21st, in the high school auditorium. Admission will be by war bonds. That is, those who purchase war bonds from September 9th to September 21st, will be given certificates of admission. This will be their admission to the performance.

Capt. K. R. Schneek, Lt. William H. Suhrheinrich and Cpl. H. T. Christofferson, from the Carlisle Barracks, inspected the high school auditorium Wednesday morning with Prof. Lloyd C. Keefeauver, superintendent, and Professor Guile W. Lefever, high school principal.

Will Dedicate County Service Roll Nov. 11

Adams county's service honor roll to be erected in Gettysburg "in honor of the men and women of Adams county serving in the armed forces" will be dedicated on Armistice Day, it was decided at a meeting of the service roll committee, Monday evening.

The dedication of the marker which will then display more than 2,200 names will be a part of the annual Armistice Day exercises to be arranged by the American Legion, it was announced.

The committee decided to give every organization and individual in the county an opportunity to contribute toward the cost of erecting and maintaining the permanent memorial to the men and women of this county who serve in the armed forces in this war.

Need More Funds

Dr. R. D. Wickerham, chairman of the steering committee which is made up of representatives of eight civic, fraternal and patriotic organizations in Gettysburg, said that contributions already amount to $590.

He estimated that "between $1,500 and $2,000" will be required to erect the memorial, have the name plates made and have a fund left over to cover the cost of adding future names and maintaining the weather-proof, glass front case which will enclose the thousands of names.

Total Cost Uncertain

The main section of the honor roll will accommodate 1,600 names. That figure already has been passed and the committee is arranging for the construction of two "wings," similar to the main section, each holding 800 names. Final cost of the enterprise will be determined largely by the total number of names which will have to be added from time to time.

Chairman Wickerham said that local residents or organizations who wish to contribute to the project should give their donations to Mrs. Henrietta Blocher, secretary-treasurer of the committee. C. Arthur Brame and Edward Culver of the general committee were named to set up arrangements in every county town for receipt of contributions.

October 1 was set as the deadline for contributions.

Only For Adams Countians
The committee decided Monday evening that only those who serve in the armed forces will be placed on the board.

To be eligible for a place on the roll of honor, a person must have given Adams county as his home address on or since December 7, 1941. The county residence must have occurred during the period of service in the armed forces, the committee ruled. The names will be in alphabetical order, last name first.

COLLEGE WILL GRADUATE 15 ON THURSDAY

Two Adams county residents are among the 15 students who received their diplomas Thursday evening at Gettysburg college's first end-of-the-summer graduation exercises, to be held at Brua Chapel at 7:30 o'clock.

President Henry W. A. Hanson delivered the graduation address to the class during a ceremony that was slightly more informal than the usual graduation exercises. It was stated. There was no baccalaureate service for the class because of the greatly accelerated tempo of the entire summer's work.

The two countians in the class are Emily Irene Z. Gotwald, daughter of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Gotwald, Tanuku, India, and a grand-daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Will Bare, 141 Seminary avenue. She is a major in political science, a member of the Student Christian Association cabinet, the Gettysburgian staff, Kappa Delta Epsilon and was on the May Day committee.

First Exercises in Fall

Ernest Peter Leer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Leer, York Springs, is a history major and is included on the dean's honor roll. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Rho social fraternity, S.C.A., Sages, Sub-freshman day committee, pre-ministerial association, Eta Sigma, Phi, Gettysburgian circulation staff and entered the Lutheran Theological seminary here today.

During the graduation exercises Prof. Parker C. Wagnild directed presentation of selections by a quartet including William Black, Roscoe W. Shank, Frank L. Keller and R. Russel Reithmiller. Preceding the ceremonies, the band of the 55th College Training Detachment (Aircrew) presented a concert beside the chapel.

The graduation Thursday was the first of its kind in the history of the college. The first between-semester exercises were held last January when other students who normally would have received their diplomas in April were graduated. The exercises also mark the first time in a number of years that Dr. Hanson delivered the main address. Dr. Frank H. Kramer, head of the education department, was the marshal for a academic procession that proceeded the exercises.

New Year Opens Sept. 23

Other members of the graduating class include Norman S. Haas, Philadelphia; Louis Karl Helldorfer, Jr., Baltimore; John Whitford Pfahler, Meyersdale; Jeanne Frances Bader, Lanark; David Y. Dollman, Pine Grove; Edgar Clair Hanks, Johns-town; Donald Warren Herb, Adams-town; W. L. Michael Maines, Woodland; Sara Jane Morrow, Harrisburg; Roscoe Wendell Shank, Blue Ridge Summit; Richard R. Teeter, Taneytown, Maryland; William Vogedes, Jr., Baltimore, and Frank Loomis Ziegler, Hanover.

The next class at the college will begin its activities September 20 when the college opens its 112th year with its 17th annual Freshman week. Freshman week opens September 20 at 9 a. m. with registration at the Registrar's office until 5 p. m. Following a supper, an address on "Life's Higher Responsibilities" will be given by President Hanson in Brua chapel. The first night's events will close with a freshman campfire in the SCA building. A series of tests and discussions on college requirements and scholastic ideals and completion of a vocational guidance test will be held during the remainder of the week. The school begins classes September 23.

The new school year will open with all of the fraternities under the direction of the college. The college has assumed control of the fraternities in order to provide sufficient dormitory space for civilian students during the coming semesters. Female students will occupy five of the fraternity houses while four will be given over to the men students.

New Bait In Hagen Kirkwood Match

Philadelphia, (AP) — Trick Shot Artist Joe Kirkwood upped the bait to $5,000 today in a new attempt to get at his former buddy Walter Hagen on the golf links.

Informed that Hagen, declining his challenge to a Red Cross benefit match with a $2,000 side bet, had said he was only an exhibition player who couldn't really play golf, the Australian-born Huntingdon Valley pro snapped:

"If he really believes that, I'll play him for $5,000 with half the bet and all the proceeds going to the Red Cross. I'm positive I can beat him. I hope the old boy recaptures just a bit of the spark of youth and gives me a chance to prove it."

Kirkwood's original challenge was issued after he said Hagen dropped him from the challenger team in the recent Ryder cup matches at Detroit after he had been invited to play.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Sgt. and Mrs. Ralph Davis announce the birth of a daughter, Linda Lou, at a Washington hospital on Thursday. Mrs. Davis is the former Miss Mary White, of Gettysburg R. 3.

The car is used on mixed local freight trains Nos. 592 and 597 between Gettysburg and Harrisburg.

State Hunting Season Opens

Harrisburg, (AP) — Devotees of rail gallinule and sora shooting lined marshy areas of the Delaware river and Lake Erie Wednesday for the opening of the three-month season but Game Commission officials said their numbers were thinned by an ammunition shortage.

Director Seth Gordon forecast a good season but said the sport would be limited largely to those who saved a stock of shells from previous seasons.

Fifteen rails and gallinules, combined, may be bagged daily until November 30. Soras may be taken between the same dates and coots between September 25 and December 3, with a daily bag limit of 25 for both kinds of birds combined. The big push of water fowl hunters is expected September 25, when the season opens for ducks, geese and brant.

Hunters may use their 1942 resident licenses until September 30. The former August 31 expiration date was extended because priorities on materials have delayed distribution of the 1943 permits.

New Spotter Post At Littlestown

The new observation post atop the Regent theatre building in Littlestown was placed in operation Sunday at 12:01 a. m. The spotters to man the post met Thursday evening in the fire engine house. Chief Observer Francis J. Will was in charge of the meeting. He explained further the duties of the spotters.

Those who had not been fingerprinted previously were fingerprinted by one of the assistant observers, Wilbur E. Mackley. The meeting was largely attended. The project is being sponsored by the John W. Ocker Post, No. 321, American Legion, under the orders of the Army Command.
